FLOOR DEBATE

March 13, 2002 LB 1073

yourself a courtly gentleman or a thorough-going cad?
(Laughter)

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: I'd prefer the gentleman, it sounds better.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So are you going to put Senator Thompson in a position of having to, perhaps, jeopardize her bill, so that this amendment of yours...let me...let me ask you a different way. If there's a possibility that your amendment could harm her bill, it is not your intent to bring harm to her bill, is it?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: No, it is not, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And, Senator Dwite Pedersen, do you understand that my reaction to this amendment has nothing to do with you, but rather the contents of the amendment and the philosophical difference that you and I have about who should be allowed to solicit money in the streets of Omaha.

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Yes, Senator Chambers, I understand that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that a...if an ordinance is passed it should be...excuse me...drafted in general terms saying something to the following; any person is free to solicit money in the streets of Omaha so long as he or she does not impede vehicular traffic?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: I'm not so sure, Senator.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: I'd have to think about that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How much time...

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Would you repeat...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...do you need to think...
