FLOOR DEBATE

April 5, 2002 LB 1085

know that pop, candy, gum and bottled water will be in that. It will be in part of that package. And I would feel a lot better in having the Department of Revenue define it. If they come up with that definition, fine, but at least we won't have it in the statutes and then have to come back and have another bill to get rid of it when this hodgepodge thing that they had, the Streamlined thing, it isn't going to work and then we'll be stuck there and have to redo with legislation. By that time, everybody is going to be so doggone mad at you because they can't buy a candy bar or a bottle of pop and have to pay tax on it, why, you'll probably have an uprising. But at least this way, I, in my opinion, this is the best way to go, and I ask for your support on the amendment. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: You've heard the closing. The question before the body is the adoption of the Janssen amendment. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. We're voting on the Janssen amendment. Senator Janssen, for what point do you rise?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Mr. Speaker, I would like to have a call of the house and a roll call vote, please.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: The question before the body is, shall we go under call? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: The house is under call. Would all members please return to the Chamber and record your presence? The house is under call. We're looking for Senator Synowiecki. Senator Price, would you check in, please? Senator Quandahl, the house is under call. Senator Beutler, would you check in, please? Senator Synowiecki. Senator Bromm, would you check in, please? Senator Wickersham, for what point do you rise?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Reverse order.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I've already had a request for a regular
