FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2002 LB 19, 729

what wings do you have to offer the leopard?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I will vote for your amendment that you have here, but that's...I'm just one person of the body.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hartnett, how would you have voted on LB 19?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I would have...I would have supported it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I know that you would have. Senator Hartnett, what I was going to say before you stood up is that there is a lock and only one key will fit it, and a person could have a million keys but, if one of those was not geared to fit that lock, the lock would remain locked. You found the key in this instance, so I'm going to ask you this question now. Senator Hartnett, what would you have me do with your bill?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I would like to have you...we can...we can vote on your amendment, then I would like to have no more amendments. (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Done.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Thank you, Senator Chambers.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, because of the exercise I'm going through I do not require that Senator Hartnett vote on this...vote yes for this amendment if he is of a mind to vote no or not vote at all. That is not a part of what it is that I'm about this afternoon. It makes me no difference how anybody votes on any of these amendments. In reality, this is not even about the rest of you all. This is about me and, since it's about me, I don't care whether you vote yes or no or don't vote at all on any of these amendments. I'm discharging a responsibility that I have. It's a responsibility that I have to me. I have other bills on this agenda that I can work with, but I have to ask Senator Hartnett this final
