FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2002

evening "temperaturewise". Tomorrow is Final Reading. That's the only thing we can do. We can't make any changes. Tonight was the last night to do that. Everything is now back down. They just, just as we completed, it was walked down to us. I would suggest tomorrow morning, at the urging of several of the members, that a ten o'clock start would be appropriate. (Applause) How do you feel about 11:00? (Laugh) Kermit, we'd like to have you up before noon. With that, again, I really want to express my appreciation for you staying this evening and doing the work. That...that really makes the place operate very well. Mr. Clerk, do you have any motions on the desk?

CLERK: I have a priority motion, Mr. President. Senator Landis would move to adjourn until 10:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: The question for the body is, shall we adjourn? All those in favor say aye. Those opposed say nay. We're adjourned.
