FLOOR DEBATE

January 12, 2004 LB 172

a legitimate, living person. But whether it is or not, for the length of time that Senator Foley wants to keep his bill before us is the length of time that I will continue to oppose it. Don't ask me to be quiet and give up when you're going to support Senator Foley in keeping the thing before us that provokes me. You all know how I am. You know that I cannot do differently from what it is that I'm doing. Senator Aguilar knows that. I'd like to ask Senator Jeanne Combs a question or two, if I can.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Combs, will you yield, please.

SENATOR COMBS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, Senator Combs, I'm not going to trick you by asking you what does t-o-w spell. What does t-o spell?

SENATOR COMBS: To, t-o.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What does t-w-o spell?

SENATOR COMBS: Two.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What does t-w-a-i-n spell?

SENATOR COMBS: Twain.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do you...what does...say them all.

SENATOR COMBS: To two twain. (Laughter)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'll teach you how to spell "locomotive" tomorrow.

SENATOR COMBS: (Laugh) Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Combs.

SENATOR COMBS: You bet.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Combs is the only one that I could do
