FLOOR DEBATE

January 14, 2004 LB 532

that failure to have proof of insurance can prevent me from driving a taxicab for five years under this bill. Is that true?

SENATOR BAKER: That's true.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And yet the one violation that led to my losing my license has nothing to do with the way I drove. Isn't that true?

SENATOR BAKER: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Baker, this bill makes no sense to me. I'm not going to keep asking you questions, but I wanted to get some things on the record. I would rather have no bill at all than to have a bill such as this. I do believe in people being held responsible for what they do, but being able to earn a living is something I'm not willing to take away from a person on whom. There are people who would support this kind of legislation who would not want similar stringent requirements placed on them before they could do whatever it is they do for a living. So I...this is one of those bills that I will fight until the bill dies or until I die. But I think Senator Baker might be reasonable and willing to change some of this stuff, because it is not any good, in my opinion. I don't even think motor vehicle homicide...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...is necessarily an offense that should prevent somebody from being a cabdriver. Some of these things on their face might sound terrible, but upon further review, it may be determined that they are not terrible at all, and some people allowed to get a license to drive a taxicab are far more dangerous than some who would fall into these categories. Senator Baker, if Senator Connealy was very upset and distressed, because he saw a recent poll that said he is not doing so well in his bid for office, and I saw how upset he was and I laughed, and he hauled off and hit me with a book...we'll give him a weapon, so that it will be a felonious assault...

SPEAKER BROMM: Time. Senator Louden.
