6 Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act pursuant to the 7 Administrative Procedure Act;

8           (2) Prescribe forms for statements and reports required to be filed 9 pursuant to the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act and 10 furnish such forms to persons required to file such statements and 11 reports;

12           (3) Prepare and publish one or more manuals explaining the duties of 13 all persons and other entities required to file statements and reports by 14 the act and setting forth recommended uniform methods of accounting and 15 reporting for such filings;

16           (4) Accept and file any reasonable amount of information voluntarily 17 supplied that exceeds the requirements of the act;

18           (5) Make statements and reports filed with the commission available 19 for public inspection and copying during regular office hours and make 20 copying facilities available at a cost of not more than fifty cents per 21 page;

22           (6) Compile and maintain an index of all reports and statements 23 filed with the commission to facilitate public access to such reports and 24 statements;

25           (7) Prepare and publish summaries of statements and reports filed 26 with the commission and special reports and technical studies to further 27 the purposes of the act;

28           (8) Review all statements and reports filed with the commission in 29 order to ascertain whether any person has failed to file a required 30 statement or has filed a deficient statement;

31           (9) Preserve statements and reports filed with the commission for a

1 period of not less than five years from the date of receipt;

2 (10) Issue and publish advisory opinions on the requirements of the 3 act upon the request of a person or government body directly covered or 4 affected by the act. Any such opinion rendered by the commission, until 5 amended or revoked, shall be binding on the commission in any subsequent 6 charges concerning the person or government body who requested the 7 opinion and who acted in reliance on it in good faith unless material 8 facts were omitted or misstated by the person or government body in the 9 request for the opinion;

10 (11) Act as the primary civil enforcement agency for violations of 11 the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act and the rules or 12 regulations adopted and promulgated thereunder;

13 (12) Receive all late filing fees, civil penalties, and interest 14 imposed pursuant to the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure 15 Act and remit all such funds to the State Treasurer for credit to the 16 Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission Cash Fund;~~and~~

17 (13) Prepare and distribute to the appropriate local officials 18 statements of financial interest, campaign committee organization forms, 19 filing instructions and forms, and such other forms as the commission may 20 deem appropriate; and -

21 (14) Adopt and promulgate rules and regulations to carry out its 22 duties under the Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act.

23 Sec. 2. Section 75-132.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is 24 amended to read:

25 75-132.01 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 75-131 and 26 except as provided by section 86-253, the commission shall have exclusive 27 original jurisdiction over any action concerning a violation of any 28 provision of (a) the Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act, the 29 Emergency Telephone Communications Systems Act, the Enhanced Wireless 911
30 Services Act, the Intrastate Pay-Per-Call Regulation Act, the Nebraska
31 Telecommunications Regulation Act, the Nebraska Telecommunications

1 Universal Service Fund Act, the Telecommunications Relay System Act, or 2 the Telephone Consumer Slamming Prevention Act by any person providing 3 telecommunications service for a fee in Nebraska intrastate commerce 4 pursuant to such acts or (b) sections 86-574 to 86-578 by an agency or 5 political subdivision of the state.

6 (2) If the commission enters an order declining jurisdiction under 7 subsection (1) of this section, any interested person may petition the 8 district court of the county in which such alleged violation has 9 occurred. If it appears to the court, after a hearing, that a provision 10 of such acts or sections has been violated, the court may issue an 11 injunction or other proper process to restrain the telecommunications 12 company and its directors, officers, employees, or agents or the agency 13 or political subdivision of the state from continuing such violation and 14 may order additional relief. Any party to the case shall have the right 15 to appeal the decision of the district court to the Court of Appeals 16 under the rules provided by law for appeals in civil cases.

18 amended to read:

19 86-236 Sections 86-236 to 86-257 and section 10 of this act shall be 20 known and may be cited as the Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act.

22 amended to read:

23 86-250 (1) A person shall not connect or operate an automatic 24 dialing-announcing device for the purpose of making telephone 25 solicitations on any telephone line unless the person has a current 26 permit from the Public Service Commission ~~commission~~ for the device. An 27 applicant for a permit shall make a written application to the 28 commission. The application shall be in a form prescribed by the 29 commission and shall require information about the type of device 30 proposed for connection and operation, the time of day telephone 31 solicitations will be made using the device, the anticipated number of 1 calls proposed to be placed during the specified calling period, the 2 average length of a completed call, or such alternative or additional 3 information as the commission may require. If the applicant is an 4 individual, the application shall include the applicant's social security 5 number. The applicant shall remit a fee of five hundred dollars for each 6 device with the application.

7 (2) Upon receiving an application for a permit, the commission may 8 grant, grant as modified, or deny the application. The commission may 9 modify or deny the permit if the commission determines that (a) the 10 applicant is unwilling or unable to meet the requirements placed on such 11 operations by law, rule, or regulation or has failed to comply with the 12 requirements in the past, (b) the connection or operation of the device 13 will result in a significant decline in the quality of service or access 14 to service for other telephone users, (c) the applicant's equipment is 15 unable to meet the requirements of law, rule, or regulation, or (d) the 16 application does not contain adequate information.

17 (3) If a permit is granted, the permit shall remain in force for two 18 years from the date of issuance, and each application for the renewal of 19 a permit shall be treated as a new application.

20 (4) After receiving a permit but prior to connecting or operating an 21 automatic dialing-announcing device on any telephone line, the 22 permitholder shall notify the telephone company of the telephone line on 23 which the device is proposed to be connected or operated. The telephone 24 line shall be considered a business telephone line. The telephone company 25 shall release to the commission the identity of any person connecting or 26 operating an automatic dialing-announcing device when requested to do so 27 by the commission pursuant to an investigation.

28 (5) A person contracting with a third party to connect or operate an 29 automatic dialing-announcing device for the purpose of making telephone 30 solicitations on any telephone line shall be jointly and severally liable 31 with the third party for connecting and operating the automatic dialing-

1 announcing device in violation of the Automatic Dialing-Announcing 2 Devices Act or the rules and regulations adopted and promulgated under 3 the act.

4 (6) A person contracting with a third party to connect or operate an 5 automatic dialing-announcing device for the purpose of making telephone 6 solicitations shall file with the commission the message to be used to 7 comply with the requirements of section 86-247. Such person shall file 8 any subsequent change to the message with the commission within five days 9 after the change.

10 Sec. 5. Section 86-252, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is 11 amended to read:

12 86-252 (1) The Public Service Commission ~~commission~~ shall adopt and 13 promulgate rules and regulations necessary to carry out those provisions 14 of the Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act governing (a) persons 15 required to have a permit under section 86-250 for using an automatic 16 dialing-announcing device for purposes of making a telephone solicitation 17 and (b) persons required to register under subsection (1) of section 18 86-256. The rules and regulations shall include limitations on the length 19 of calls and messages and the days of the week, holidays, and time of day 20 when calls can be made.

21 (2) The Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission shall 22 adopt and promulgate rules and regulations necessary to carry out those 23 provisions of the Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act governing 24 persons required to register under section 10 of this act for using an 25 automatic dialing-announcing device for purposes of supporting or 26 opposing a political candidate or ballot issue.

27 Sec. 6. Section 86-253, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is 28 amended to read:

29 86-253 The Public Service Commission and Nebraska Accountability and 30 Disclosure Commission shall have separate jurisdiction to ~~commission may~~ 31 conduct investigations and shall enforce their respective duties under

1 the Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act. Upon written complaint and 2 supporting affidavit that an applicable law, rule, or regulation has been 3 or is being violated, the applicable commission may enter a cease and 4 desist order on an ex parte basis against the party named in the 5 complaint. The order shall have duration of no more than twenty days, and 6 a hearing upon the complaint shall be held no later than twenty days 7 after the order is entered. In addition to any criminal or other 8 penalties, failure to comply with an applicable law, rule, or regulation 9 shall constitute grounds for revocation or suspension of a permit or 10 registration.

11 Sec. 7. Section 86-254, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is 12 amended to read:

13 86-254 The Public Service Commission ~~commission~~, its agents or 14 employees, or any peace officer of this state at the direction of the 15 commission may, at any place in the state, seize without a warrant any 16 automatic dialing-announcing device the operation of which does not 17 conform in all respects to requirements imposed by subdivisions (1) and 18 (2) of section 86-244 or any rules or regulations. The seized device 19 shall constitute contraband. The commission may, upon satisfactory proof, 20 direct return of a seized device when the evidence establishes the owner 21 did not willfully or intentionally fail to comply with the applicable 22 law, rules, or regulations. The commission may, upon finding that the 23 owner of a seized device has willfully or intentionally failed to comply 24 with the applicable law, rules, or regulations, confiscate the device.
25 Any device so confiscated may be destroyed. Destruction of a device shall 26 not occur before all statutory appeal periods available to the owner have 27 been exhausted. The seizure and destruction of an automatic dialing-28 announcing device shall not relieve any person from a fine, imprisonment, 29 or other penalty for violation of the applicable law, rules, or 30 regulations. The commission, its agents and employees, or any peace 31 officer of this state shall not be liable for negligence for the seizure,

1 confiscation, or destruction of any contraband pursuant to this section.

2 Sec. 8. Section 86-255, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is
3 amended to read:

4 86-255 Any decision of the Public Service Commission or the Nebraska 5 Accountability and Disclosure Commission ~~commission~~ made pursuant to the 6 Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices Act or the rules and regulations may 7 be appealed. The appeal shall be in accordance with the Administrative 8 Procedure Act ~~section 75-136~~.
