LB 172 would give counties the authority to enact ordinances for a broad spectrum of reasons including maintaining the peace, good government, and welfare of the county, etc... Counties are also given broad authority to impose fines and penalties. Since the enactment of ordinances and the imposition of fines and penalties are at the discretion of the county, the passage of LB 172 would have no immediate fiscal impact. Future impacts will be dependent on county action and cannot be estimated for that reason.
