LB 1000 amends the Nebraska Liquor Control Act, Nebraska Revised Statutes Sections 53-103 and 53-125 regarding the provisions for managers and limited liability companies.

The bill redefines “manager” to include a person appointed by a limited liability company, and changes the residency and citizenship requirements for managers to require that they are the same as for applicants for a liquor license. An applicant for a Nebraska liquor license must be a resident of Nebraska and a citizen of the United States.

The bill also amends language regarding limited liability companies to clarify that a limited liability company will not be issued a license if any officer or director of the company or any member who has more than a 25 percent ownership interest would be ineligible to receive a license or if the manager of a limited liability company licensee would be ineligible to receive a license under that section.

The Liquor Control Commission indicates that LB 788 has no fiscal impact.

There is no basis to disagree with the Liquor Control Commission’s estimate of fiscal impact.

IMPACT TO POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS:

Appears to have no fiscal impact.
