9 amended to read:

10           83-171 There is hereby created a Department of Correctional Services 11 which shall:

12           (1) Maintain and administer facilities required for the custody, 13 control, correctional treatment, and rehabilitation of persons committed 14 to the department and for the safekeeping of such other persons as may be 15 remanded to the department in accordance with law;

16           (2) Develop policies and programs for the correctional treatment and 17 rehabilitation of persons committed to the department;

18           (3) Supervise parolees who have been committed to the department; 19 and

20           (4) Until January 1, 2017 ~~July 1, 2016~~, administer parole services
21 in the facilities and in the community and, beginning January 1, 2017
22 ~~July 1, 2016~~, cooperate with the Board of Parole and Office of Parole
23 Administration to assist with the efficient administration of parole 24 services in the facilities and in the community.

25           Sec. 5. Section 83-1,100, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2015, is 26 amended to read:

27           83-1,100 (1) There is hereby created the Office of Parole
28 Administration. Until January 1, 2017 ~~July 1, 2016~~, the office shall be 29 within the Department of Correctional Services. Beginning January 1, 2017
30 ~~July 1, 2016~~, the office shall be within the Board of Parole. The 31 director and the board shall jointly develop a transition implementation

1 plan. The plan shall be presented to the Governor and to the Legislature
2 no later than December 1, 2015. The report to the Legislature shall be 3 delivered electronically.

4 (2) The director and the board shall meet monthly to implement the 5 plan. The director and the chairperson shall issue reports to the 6 Legislature monthly. Such reports shall include, but not be limited to, 7 the following:

8 (a) On May 1, 2016, a report detailing budget and transition
9 logistics;

10 (b) On June 1, 2016, a report detailing development of board
11 policies and procedures;

12 (c) On July 1, 2016, a detailed community-based services
13 coordination plan; and

14 (d) On August 1, 2016, a data and evaluation plan.

15 Subsequent monthly reports shall be issued on the first of each
16 month until January 1, 2017, and shall detail changes to the transition 17 implementation plan described in subsection (1) of this section and the 18 plans described in subdivision (2)(a) through (d) of this section as well 19 as other implementation or transition challenges, successes, and 20 failures. Beginning January 1, 2017, and until January 1, 2018, the Board 21 of Parole shall issue reports to the Governor and electronically to the 22 Legislature on a quarterly basis, detailing challenges, successes, and 23 failures of the management of parole operations by the Board of Parole.

24 (3) The employees of the office shall consist of the Parole
25 Administrator, the field parole service officers, and all other office
26 staff. The office shall be responsible for the following:

27 (a) The administration of parole services in the community;

28 (b) The maintenance of all records and files associated with the 29 Board of Parole;

30 (c) The daily supervision and training of staff members of the 31 office, including training regarding evidence-based practices in

1 supervision pursuant to section 83-1,100.02; and

2 (d) The assessment, evaluation, and supervision of individuals who 3 are subject to parole supervision, including lifetime community
4 supervision pursuant to section 83-174.03.

5 (4 2) Parole officers shall be compensated with salaries
6 substantially equal to other state employees who have similar 7 responsibilities, including employees of the Office of Probation
8 Administration. This subsection shall apply only to field parole service
9 officers and support staff and shall not apply to the Parole
10 Administrator, any deputy parole administrator, or any other similarly 11 established management position.

12 (5 3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the 13 office from maintaining daily records and files associated with the Board
14 of Pardons.

15 Sec. 6. Section 83-1,101, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is 16 amended to read:

17 83-1,101 The chairperson of the Board of Parole, with an affirmative
18 vote of four members ~~Director of Correctional Services with the consent~~
19 of the Board of Parole shall appoint a Parole Administrator, who shall be 20 a person with appropriate experience. The Parole Administrator may be 21 removed by the chairperson of the Board of Parole by a vote taken by the 22 majority of the Board of Parole in the field of corrections, or with 23 training in relevant disciplines at a recognized university.

24 Sec. 7. Section 83-933, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2015, is 25 amended to read:

26 83-933 Until January 1, 2017 ~~July 1, 2016~~, the Office of Parole
27 Administration shall be within the Division of Community-Centered
28 Services. Beginning January 1, 2017 ~~July 1, 2016~~, the Office of Parole 29 Administration shall be within the Board of Parole. Subject to 30 supervision, the Parole Administrator shall be charged with the 31 administration of parole services in the community pursuant to the

1 provisions of section 83-1,102, implementation and administration of the 2 Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision as it affects parolees, 3 community supervision of sex offenders pursuant to section 83-174.03, and 4 supervision of parolees either paroled in Nebraska and supervised in 5 another state or paroled in another state and supervised in Nebraska, 6 pursuant to the compact.

7       Sec. 8. Original section 83-1,101, Reissue Revised Statutes of 8 Nebraska, and sections 47-903, 47-908, 47-913, 83-171, 83-1,100, and 9 83-933, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2015, are repealed.

10       Sec. 9. Since an emergency exists, this act takes effect when 11 passed and approved according to law.
