Highlighted Developments

In 2015, Vocational and Life Skills (VLS) Grantee Mental Health Association (MHA) received a Vocational and Life Skills grant to work with Nebraska Department of Correctional Services (NDCS) to provide reentry services to people in prison and with people living in the community who were released from prison. By using the nontraditional Intentional Peer Support model, they have supported and helped thousands of individuals released from prison to successfully transition into the community (Approximately 400 individuals per quarter).

Mental Health Association (MHA) ensures their staff are trained in the evidence-based model of Intentional Peer Support where people who have successfully navigated the return to the community from prison, mental health and/or substance abuse treatment are able to draw from their experiences to help and work with their peers currently living in NDCS facilities.

By providing employment services through the HOPE program and developing relationships with employers, program staff are able to assist people in obtaining employment. Some of the program participants released from prison do not have a work history due to having been incarcerated for an extended amount of time or because they have never had access to employment. MHA works with program participants to develop soft skills needed to find and maintain a job and provide ongoing support and intervention to address problems that may derail an individual’s transition into the community and avoid recidivism.

The Honu Home is a 20-bed peer run transitional housing program for men and women. Individuals are able to learn how to live in a community and avoid isolation, which sometimes plagues newly released individuals who are on their own. In 2018, due to high demand and a long waiting list, Honu Home went from a five-bedroom house to a 20-bed house. Honu staff wanted to create a warm and welcoming environment for their residents when they arrive after being released from prison, but lacked the resources to make the necessary repairs and furnish the building. To meet this challenge, MHA reached out to the community and organized a successful room decoration event. This brought together a diverse group of people from the community including NDCS, parole, the neighborhood association, local businesses and nonprofit organizations that volunteered to decorate one room each. This collective effort made Honu not only welcoming, but also an oasis and an attractive transitional living home for people returning to the community from prison.
MHA believes in community partnerships and works hard to get people that otherwise would not interact with each other or work together. Law enforcement, parole and probation work with the residents to address problems and challenges that may come up. The Food Bank makes sure residents have food security. The men and women newly released are also referred to mental health and substance abuse services to set up meetings to avoid potential temptations and difficulties. MHA is able to leverage their own resources and work with other VLS partners and community services to help individuals or refer them to a variety of wrap around services and educational programs. These include rent wise, parenting, sex education and more. MHA has worked hard to build good relationships with landlords who are willing to rent to people with felony records. They also assists individuals with finding permanent housing.

MHA’s Intentional Peer Support services is unique because staff use their personal struggles and experiences to help the participants navigate available resources in the community to meet their needs. It offers formerly incarcerated people the opportunity to work directly with their peers who are still in prison. Kasey Moyer, the Executive Director of MHA shared the challenge many organizations are currently experiencing is the shortage of mental health providers to serve the target population. Intentional Peer Support programming is an evidence-based approach that helps ease the shortage of behavioral health workers and allows trained peers to provide initial support to those individuals. Successful peers bring credibility because they have firsthand experience of how to use the resources, know where to find them, and how to navigate the terrain which can sometimes be challenging. Peers offer understanding and support when an individual struggles or makes mistakes. Therefore, individuals have more opportunities to work on their wellness and recovery. Individuals who have no work history can build one and receive a chance to be gainfully employed, support themselves and their families. “It is a win-win,” said Moyer. “Peers are helping each other, earning a livable wage, finding purpose and paying taxes.”

MHA’s work and collaboration with NDCS has garnered praise and attention at many levels. Moyer has been invited to participate in a Peer Bridger program with the Colorado Department of Corrections via Mental Health America in Alexandria, VA. Having been invited to speak at different conferences and organizations throughout the year, Moyer said she realized the work that MHA has been doing is not only being recognized locally but also nationally. Moyer noted her work would not have become successful without the collaboration with NDCS and other community partners who share the same goals and visions in helping the individuals with non-punishment based services.

ASSOCIATED BUILDERS & CONTRACTORS (ABC)

Eblin is a student at the Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) Omaha Training Center. He is currently enrolled in Plumbing 2. Eblin had his first experience with ABC while incarcerated at the Nebraska State Penitentiary (NSP). He took the OSHA 10 Hour course for Construction and General Industry at the facility. Upon his release, he contacted ABC’s Omaha Training Center and enrolled in Plumbing 1. He has had great success in the coursework, always at or above the class average with his test grades. This fall Eblin expressed to ABC’s office manager, Theresa in Omaha, how much his life had changed due to the ABC program. He is now gainfully employed through acquiring a job that raised his salary by $3 per hour the day before he spoke to her. He has a home and a car and expressed how his life is so much better that it has ever been. He thanked Theresa and told her that ABC has changed his life. She told him ABC was just the vehicle, but he was the driver who had truly changed his life. We are very proud of Eblin and all of the students involved in the ABC VLS program. All that have been released and continued in the ABC program are currently employed and are at the top of their classes. He is a true success story for the ABC VLS program.

Anne Klute - Executive Director of Associated Builders and Contractors
BRISTOL STATION

The following are responses from Bristol Station participants who were given an anonymous survey about their experiences in the program.

Q: Why did you choose to come to Bristol Station?

- A: “I chose to come to Bristol Station to give myself the opportunity to make a good, slow and positive transition back into society. I must admit it was not my first choice, but I am glad I had the chance to come to Bristol Station.”
- A: “I came to Bristol for a new start and a new beginning in a new community to surround myself around positive and new people.”
- A: “To help me transition into the community, get a job, save money and take relapse prevention.”

Q: Has Bristol Station been helpful for you?

- A: “Bristol Station has been very helpful to me. For example, I have some medical issues and Bristol Station was very forthcoming with transportation and direction in which physicians I should go see to address my medical problems. Bristol Station holds you accountable and responsible for your future and destiny.”
- A: “They helped me get a start on my new life by providing me with food and shelter so I can get out here on my own. They give me classes and the tools to help me be able to live on my own independently and become a better man and know how to handle situations differently.”
- A: “Yes. Bristol has helped me with my state ID and support getting a job. Also, very helpful with anything I need. A very good place for me. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to be here.”

Q: If you had to explain Bristol Station to someone who doesn’t know anything about Bristol Station, what would you say?

- A: “Bristol Station is cool. This place gives you almost everything you need to reintegrate back into the community. Bristol Station tries to make sure you have all the tools you need to transition from an incarcerated person to a productive member of society. They feed you, they offer you classes, and they help you find a job. Bristol Station assists you in getting your identification and social security card. They allow you to have your own car, phone and some personal effects. Yes, they do have rules in place for the safety of the residents and the staff, but I would say Bristol Station is a good place to try and get your life back on track after any type of stint with incarceration.”
- A: “They’re very helpful and understanding and help people like me out that didn’t grow up with guidance or who don’t know how to deal with certain individuals.”
- A: “Bristol Station will help you transition back into the community and will give you all the tools you need to help you succeed in your life. Also, staff is very helpful. If you want to succeed back in the community, I would recommend Bristol Station for parole.”
Q: What do you feel is your biggest accomplishment since coming to Bristol Station? What are you most proud of?

- A: “My biggest accomplishment since coming to Bristol Station has been the opportunity to reconnect and strengthen my relationship with my wife and daughter. It is a big difference trying to hold together a marriage and family from inside of a state facility, so that is another great opportunity Bristol Station allows you by letting you take passes with your family so you can share some time together.”
- A: “Getting a job and keeping my sobriety.”
- A: “Keeping a job.”

Q: Would you recommend Bristol Station to someone else? Why or why not?

- A: “Yes, it is a good transition house. They give you freedoms but yet give you control of your own destiny. There is structure here and resources. It’s up to you to use them.”
- A: “Yes, because it is the best place to be to transition out of prison. They have rules to follow but they also try to help and work with you too.”
- A: “Yes, to help them get on their feet and keep their motivation towards goals.”

Q: Do you feel the support/help you have received has been helpful. What staff member(s) have been most helpful and why?

- A: “Yes, the support and help here has been very helpful to me. Mere words cannot express the appreciation I have for the assistance and resources that are available to me. I guess if I had to pick someone, I would say my case manager, Tara. She has been very helpful and understanding.”
- A: “Ed on day shift – always been helpful with questions I have. Sheila – helpful with questions and takes me to work when the weather is bad. Tara – cares about me and wants me to do well. Jerry on night shift – always asks if I need anything or if he can assist me with anything.”
- A: “Yes. Gayle has helped me with job searches and resumes. Tara always helps me with paying my bills/debit card. Alex is cool to talk to as my PO.”

CENTER FOR PEOPLE IN NEED - TRADE

Valedex was discharged from CCC-L and paroling back to Columbus he had a discharge plan which included a family member coming to pick him up. It was unclear at the time why the person did not show up. However, we discovered later that they had a car issue and were in a poor cellphone service location. Alejandro decided to reach out to TRADE knowing he was not going to be able to get a bus ticket until the following day from CCC-L back to Columbus. He had no place to stay the night and was going to go to the city mission. He had no transportation and had not cashed his discharge check and had nothing to eat for the remainder of the day.
TRADE connected with Mental Health Association (MHA), Honu home and secured Alejandro a safe place to spend the night with transportation to CCC-L in the morning. TRADE staff took Alejandro to cash his discharge check for food and send him to Honu home. TRADE staff reported to his PRS officer and confirmed that a plan was in place, and that Alejandro was using community resources.

This was a great experience for a number of reasons because the participant was using resources to help make good decisions, there were community resources available for him, and that multiple agencies were able to collaborate so well together in order to help this client succeed and feel valued.

Matt Hill-Trade Program Manager

MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION (MHA)

Carson served an 18 to 20 year sentence for accessory to a murder. She was paroled to Honu home on January 25, 2019 and also began working with HOPE and REAL program. Soon after her arrival, Carson got a job at Valentino’s. However, Carson’s anxiety took over and made it very difficult for her to work and keep her job. We remember the day Carson’s anxiety was so severe the supervisor told Carson’s employment specialist with HOPE, Carson was shaking so much, she shook the pizza right off the pan. Carson went through four different jobs in five months while at Honu. It was apparent that employment for her at that time was very much a struggle. Carson had an extended stay at Honu due to her mental health and efforts to adapt back into the community. Carson moved out to a friend’s house who was willing to rent her a room on June 23, 2019. She reported to staff and management that she was scared. We encouraged her to come back during the days, hang out and be around the people she now considered her support system and she followed through. Carson began volunteering at Honu and did really well. She is growing and getting more comfortable each day. On September 19, 2019, Carson was hired as a peer specialist at Honu home and she LOVES her job and we’ve watched her gain confidence. We believe she will be with us for a long time and she will be able to maintain employment and also have purpose.

METROPOLITAN COMMUNITY COLLEGE (MCC)

Billy began working with the 180 Re-entry Assistance Program (180 RAP) at Metropolitan Community College (MCC) while incarcerated at the Omaha Correctional Center. When he was released, he entered the New Life Recovery Program, a nine month program at the Open Door Mission. After completing New Life, Billy successfully completed the forklift training with 180 RAP and began working regularly with MCC’s Re-entry Center for education assistance and employment support. Due to his hard work and dedication, Billy earned his GED and secured full time gainful employment. Recently, his wife and children were able to relocate to Omaha from Chicago so he was able to reunite with his family as he successfully transitioned to the community.

Diane Good-Collins – Program Director

MID-PLAINS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Mid-Plains Community College (MPCC) continues to offer monthly Access to Workforce Opportunities short course trainings at the MPCC McCook Campus location. Quarter 5 of the MPCC Access to Workforce Opportunities Program offered a total of 10 short courses including:

- 3 Forklift Operator Safety Training Classes
- 3 Focus Four Hazards Classes
- 2 CPR/First Aid Classes
- 2 CDL Preparatory Courses

The Access to Workforce Opportunities program is designed to reduce recidivism by teaching incarcerated individuals marketable skills and provides opportunities to earn credentials that will improve chances of obtaining employment following release. Four different short course trainings are offered through the Access to Workforce Opportunities program. As of September 20, 2019, seven students have completed all four program offerings, 26 students have completed three program offerings, 33 students have completed two program offerings, and 76 students have completed one program offering. A total of 142 students have been served by the Access to Workforce Opportunities program, completing a total of 248 courses since the program commenced.

RECONNECT

Davis consistently came in to look for employment. He had numerous employment barriers in the past. Finally, he found employment in maintenance. We helped him look for work, address employment barriers and assisted him with appropriate work clothing and bus tickets to get to work. He was hired at $18.00 per hour and was eventually given a raise within a very short time to $24.00 per hour because of his skills and work ethic. This shows all he needed was the opportunity to show his skills.

LaVon Stennis Williams – Executive Director
York College

The end of the semester is approaching with each student having maintained an ‘A’ average. Also York College Professor Erin Dehart has started a book club with the NCCW students. This book club is not required for their associate degrees. The success of each individual is demonstrated with the new class and with the graduation class of 2019 from NCCW. Each student has gracefully committed to spend their evening reading the book Miss Erin Dehart ordered. The book is called, "Educated" by Tara Westover. Each week the women meet to discuss their ideas and opinions of the material they read. This is an achievement that provides skills to help them express and explore their intellectual minds and open a new paradigm.

Executive Summary

This report presents quarterly data and evaluation updates for the Vocational and Life Skills Program (VLS) through Quarter Five of Grant Cycle Three. VLS was created by the Nebraska Legislative Bill 907 in 2014 to reduce recidivism and increase meaningful employment for Nebraskans convicted of a crime. The report contains 1) descriptions of the eight funded programs across the state, 2) a snapshot of program participation across the programs, 3) demographics of the participants served by the VLS initiative, and 4) participation breakdowns and descriptions of the skills participants are gaining through VLS programming. VLS continues to update service providers to ensure the best programming is available to Nebraska participants.

The VLS initiative is evaluated by the Nebraska Center for Justice Research (NCJR) to identify the impact these programs and services have in increasing meaningful employment. As part of the evaluation, NCJR provides trainings to support grantees as needed, and manages participant data in a data management system created specifically for VLS. NCJR provides feedback and information to the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services (NDCS) regarding the implementation process and data updates on a monthly and quarterly basis. NCJR has collaborated with service providers to create individualized evaluation plans with manageable goals and is working to complete an overall evaluation of VLS during this grant cycle.
Report Definitions

NEW PARTICIPANTS
New participants are the subset of the total who were new to the programs this quarter. New participants with each program are counted only once which is reflected in the month they began their participation.

TOTAL SERVED
Total served is a count of unique active participants for the quarter. Any participant that does not have an end date to their programming during the quarter is counted as a unique participant served. If the same person is a participant in multiple programs, they are counted once in each program as a unique participant for the quarter they began participating.

SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED
Participants are considered successful when they meet the individualized plan set up for them upon intake into the programs. Once they meet this threshold, they are exited from the program and marked as successfully completed. Success looks different for each participant and varies across programs as well (see Appendix A). Because of this, there will be no comparisons between programs based on successful completion numbers.

TOTAL PARTICIPANTS (CYCLE THREE)
The total number of participants served during Grant Cycle Three is reported here. If the same person is a participant in multiple programs, they are counted once in each program as a unique participant.

TOTAL SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETING (CYCLE THREE)
Participants are included in the total successfully completing for the grant cycle if they meet the definition of successful completion mentioned above. This captures anyone who has an ending status of successful completion from the beginning of the grant cycle (July 1, 2018) to the end of the current quarter.

Since the beginning of the current grant cycle, 2,333 Vocational and Life Skills participants have successfully completed programming across all eight programs. Participants successfully complete the programming when they meet the requirements of their individual plan with program staff in 107 days on average (See Appendix A). Although most participants successfully complete programming, some fail for a variety of reasons: decide to leave on their own accord (terminated by self), are asked to leave by the program (terminated by program), relocate residential location or facility (moved), are referred to another agency (referred to other agency), or they may leave for another reason (other). There were 517 participants who ended programming in Quarter Five.

Participant Demographics

Program staff collect a variety of self-reported demographic information from participants in their programs. If an individual participated in multiple programs, their demographic information is counted for each participation, so the data is based on individual participations and not necessarily individual people. In this report, we present demographic information on age, race, and sex. There were 195 participants (11.6%) who identified as Hispanic or Latinx. These participants are most often represented in the Other or White racial categories.
Program Areas

Program area participations for Grant Cycle Three Quarter Five (July 2019 - September 2019) are presented below. Program staff work with each participant to develop an individualized plan of programming unique to their needs. Many participants are involved in multiple program areas at each program and some program areas offered are not suitable for each participant. It is not necessary for a participant to complete each program area to be considered a successful participant. Some may only complete one program area, while others may participate in multiple areas either back-to-back or simultaneously in order to complete the program. It is only when participants complete the necessary program areas that program staff will mark an individual as successfully completing. This is determined on an individual basis.

An overview of all program areas each program offers and any updates to program areas is provided in Appendix A of this report. Program areas have changed, and in some cases, will continue to change. Therefore, some of the data presented will not match exactly with previous quarterly reports on program areas.

Appendix A: Program Area Descriptions

The following program area descriptions provide information on different services offered in each program. Each area details the services provided, the benefit or result a participant can hope to get from completing the area, the duration of programming, and the locations the program area is offered. Not all program areas or services are always offered, and participants may not participate in all program areas during their programming. As each participant goes through programming differently based on their individual needs, these descriptions provide more insight into the program area participations reported. Program areas are updated quarterly to reflect what is currently offered.

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC)

Success is generally captured after completing OSHA 10 Hour Construction and General Industry training while in correctional facilities. Some participants also move on to a core class in facilities or may take additional classes out in the community after release.
