LB234 relates to cities and villages of all classes. LB234 provides for the payment of a claim by a small business within 15 days of the later of the day

- the services were rendered or the articles were furnished or
- the bill was received for the services or articles.

Lincoln indicates minimal fiscal impact.

Imperial indicates the need to hire a part-time employee at $10,000 to handle the provisions of LB234.

Explanation of Estimate:

I believe we would have to hire a part-time employee to track the small business and timely payment of claims. Currently, the City Council approves claims once a month, but that would no longer be possible. An employee would need to track the claims that had to be paid at each meeting, based on whether or not the claimant meets the criteria for a Small Business. Current employees do not have the time to track those claims.
