LB 395 provides a tenant is not in breach or noncompliance with a rental agreement or any separate agreement if the grounds for the breach or noncompliance is the direct result of the tenant being a victim of domestic assault or other crime committed against them by an intimate partner, as defined by the applicable statutes. Additionally, tenants are not subject to having their rental agreement terminated when a violent crime has occurred on the premises where the crime was domestic assault and the tenant was the victim.

A fiscal impact is absent as the proposed legislation speaks to tenant rights.
