Any Fiscal Notes received from state agencies and political subdivisions are attached following the Legislative Fiscal Analyst Estimate.

LB997 amends §79-214 & §79-220.

Starting with the 2023-24 school year & each school year thereafter, the examinations & evaluations required for school entrance will now include a screening for autism spectrum disorder.

No Fiscal Impact to the State but there may be impact to the individual schools districts if their approved employees need additional training to be qualified to do the required screenings, the impact cannot be determined at this time.
