Any Fiscal Notes received from state agencies and political subdivisions are attached following the Legislative Fiscal Analyst Estimate.

LB 21 changes provisions related to proposals submitted by the legislature for a vote by the electorate of the entire state. Current statute requires such submissions occur at least four months prior to the general election. LB 21 allows for submissions from a special session to be submitted at least sixty days prior to the general election.

At this time the Secretary of State has not had sufficient time to estimate a fiscal impact. Through informal communication, the Secretary of State's office believes the impact will be minimal.

When an official response is received this fiscal note will be updated.
