LB844 amends the Farm Labor Contractors Act by:

- Adding a definition for detasseling and roguing
- Creates reporting requirements for seed corn producers who contract for labor for roguing and detasseling;
- Requires the Department of Agriculture to annually publish a report, beginning September 30, 2025, containing information submitted by corn seed producers;
- Requires the Department of Agriculture to publish a directory containing information related to seed corn operations seeking labor; and
- Creates a Class IV misdemeanor under the act for seed corn producers who violate reporting requirements.

The Department of Agriculture indicates that it can accomplish the additional requirements with its current appropriation. No fiscal impact.

Explanation of Estimate:

The department would be required to prescribe a form for corn seed producers to complete and submit annually. Information from the forms would be compiled and a report published on the department’s website. Additionally, a directory would be made available on the department’s website listing operations with valid exemptions under 48-1703. The department will obtain information on exemptions certificates issued from the Department of Labor to then post on the department’s website.

There is no fiscal impact expected to fulfill the requirements set out in LB844.
