16       (1) if a decedent was domiciled in this state at the time of death:

17       (A) all or a proportionate part of each item of personal property,

15 jurisdiction under which the trust was created.

16 (c) The Uniform Community Property Disposition at Death Act does not 17 apply to property that:

26 (b) A community-property spouse domiciled in this state may waive a
27 right granted by the Uniform Community Property Disposition at Death Act 28 only by complying with the law of this state, including this state's 29 choice-of-law rules, applicable to waiver of a spousal property right.

30 Sec. 5. All property acquired by a community-property spouse when 31 domiciled in a jurisdiction where community property then could be

4       Sec. 6. (a) One-half of the property to which the Uniform Community
5 Property Disposition at Death Act applies belongs to the surviving

9 Disposition at Death Act applies belongs to the decedent and is subject 10 to disposition by the decedent at death.

12 decedent and the elective-share right of the surviving community-property
13 spouse:

14       (1) property under subsection (a) of this section is deemed to be 15 property of the surviving community-property spouse; and 17 property of the decedent.

18       (d) Except for the purpose of calculating the augmented estate of 19 the decedent and the elective-share right of the surviving community-20 property spouse, this section does not apply to property transferred by 21 right of survivorship or under a revocable trust or other nonprobate 22 transfer.

23       (e) This section does not limit the right of a surviving community-24 property spouse to the homestead allowance under section 30-2322, exempt 25 property allowance under section 30-2323, and family allowance under 26 section 30-2324.

27       (f) If at death a decedent purports to transfer to a third person 28 property that, under this section, belongs to the surviving community-
29 property spouse and transfers other property to the surviving community-
30 property spouse, this section does not limit the authority of the court
31 under other law of this state to require that the community-property

1 spouse elect between retaining the property transferred to the community-
2 property spouse or asserting rights under the Uniform Community Property
3 Disposition at Death Act.

4       Sec. 7. (a) At the death of a community-property spouse, the

9 marriage or other relationship under which community property then could 10 be acquired; or

11       (2) the decedent that takes effect at the death of the decedent.

12       (b) In determining a right under subsection (a) of this section and 13 corresponding remedy, the court:

17 when property was acquired or enhanced.

18       Sec. 8. (a) The surviving community-property spouse of the decedent
19 may assert a claim for relief with respect to a right under the Uniform
20 Community Property Disposition at Death Act in accordance with the 21 following rules:

22       (1) In an action asserting a right in or to property, the surviving 23 community-property spouse must:

24       (A) not later than one year after the death of the decedent, 25 commence an action against an heir, devisee, or nonprobate transferee of 26 the decedent that is in possession of the property; or

5 action not later than one year after the death of the decedent.

6       (b) Unless a timely demand is made under subdivision (a)(1)(B) or 7 (a)(2)(A) of this section, the personal representative may distribute the 8 assets of the decedent's estate without personal liability for a
9 community-property spouse's claim under the Uniform Community Property
10 Disposition at Death Act.

11       Sec. 9. An heir, devisee, or nonprobate transferee of a deceased

28       (B) if a personal representative is not appointed, commence the 29 action not later than one year after the death of the decedent.

30       Sec. 10. (a) With respect to property to which the Uniform
31 Community Property Disposition at Death Act applies, a person is not

1 liable under the Uniform Community Property Disposition at Death Act to 2 the extent the person:

3 (1) transacts in good faith and for value:

4 (A) with a community-property spouse; or

5 (B) after the death of the decedent, with a surviving community-
6 property spouse, personal representative, heir, devisee, or nonprobate

8 (2) does not know or have reason to know that the other party to the 9 transaction is exceeding or improperly exercising the party's authority.

10 (b) Good faith under subdivision (a)(1) of this section does not 11 require the person to inquire into the extent or propriety of the 12 exercise of authority by the other party to the transaction.

13 Sec. 11. The principles of law and equity supplement the Uniform
14 Community Property Disposition at Death Act except to the extent 15 inconsistent with the act.

16 Sec. 12. In applying and construing the Uniform Community Property
17 Disposition at Death Act, a court shall consider the promotion of

21 extinguished, or barred on the expiration of a limitation period that 22 began to run under another statute before the effective date of this act, 23 that statute continues to apply to the right even if the statute has been 24 repealed or superseded by the Uniform Community Property Disposition at 25 Death Act.

26 Sec. 14. Except as provided in section 13 of this act, the Uniform
27 Community Property Disposition at Death Act applies to a judicial
