KELLY: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the fifth day of the One Hundred Eighth Legislature, Second Session. Our chaplain for today is Pastor Jeff Scheich, Christ Lincoln, Lincoln, Nebraska, in Senator Bosn's district. Please rise.

PASTOR SCHEICH: Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we are grateful today for the gift of another day. The snow and the rain that water the earth are not only vital for us as they provide food and nourishment, but they also demonstrate to us your immense power over all things. As we're in this new year, a new session of the Legislature, many possibilities lie before us. And we have different views, even within this Chamber, of what is best for our state and our people. We hold these views passionately. Father, we ask that we would work— that you would work mightily in our hearts. That in the midst of these differences, we might defend one another, speak well of one another, and explain the views and actions of others in the kindest way. Bless us with wisdom, for the Scripture says, the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. Not only do we pray for those serving in this Chamber, but we lift up all those who serve us in our state. For Governor Ricketts and his leadership team, for the people who serve in our state and local court systems, and for all those who serve us in the military as first responders. Finally, oh, Lord, the scriptures tell us that you are the one who raises up leaders and you bring them down. We pray today that we will be mindful that ultimately we serve you and answer to you for the way we carry out the leadership trust you have given to us. Make us humble. Enable the people of our state and beyond to be blessed by the decisions we make throughout this session. Heavenly Father, we ask, what do you want of us today? How can we serve you today? We pray in Jesus' name, amen.

KELLY: Thank you, Pastor Scheich. Senator Clements is recognized for the Pledge of Allegiance.

KELLY: Speaker Arch, you're recognized for an announcement.

ARCH: Colleagues, unfortunately, we're watching the weather once again. We see something on Thursday and spilling over into Friday. My intention was that we were going to adjourn by noon on Friday, so we're watching it carefully. We will start rules debate tomorrow morning. But, but we'll, we'll keep an eye on Friday. I'm not sure we want to bring everybody in for-- till noon, and then have everybody go home and skate their way home on, on bad roads. So we'll watch that, but we'll know more tomorrow morning. Thank you, Mr. President.

KELLY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, first of all, announcement. The Reference Committee will meet upon recess tomorrow in Room 2102. Reference Committee meet upon recess tomorrow in Room 2102. Additionally, a priority motion: Senator Walz would move to adjourn the body until Thursday, January 11, 2024, at 9:00 a.m.

KELLY: The question is, shall the Legislature adjourn for the day? All those in favor say aye. All those opposed, nay. We are adjourned for the day.
