DEPT OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES		6/28/2024	2,398.93	Was driving slowly along a gravel road to investigate a complaint, noticed an approaching black truck coming down the middle of the road. The driver did not appear to notice me, and had his head pointed down looking at his phone. As the truck approached at approx. 40 mph I laid on the horn. The driver looked up but I feared for my safety and decided to drive my vehicle into the ditch to avoid a collision. The ditch was much steeper than I had anticipated because of vegetation overgrowth. The truck drove by without stopping. I called my supervisor, and TSB arranged a tow truck. The tow arrived within a half hour, pulled the vehicle out and took it to the shop. Besides cleaning some mud off a wheel (front passenger) no damage was done to the car.
