LB 1058 amends the Nebraska Visitors Development Act, it mandates the creation of a specific grant for an organization that provides tourism services, is located on the Missouri Rive and within 5 miles of a city of the first class. It provides parameters for the application process. The bill states intent to appropriate $150,000 dollars of general funds for this specific grant.

This bill will have a fiscal impact in FY2025-26 due to the assumption of general funds being appropriated and a grant being awarded.
