LB 1075 would authorize the village clerk to prepare claims and issue warrants for the village. The bill would also change various provisions of the Election Act such as candidate filing procedures, election workers, voting requirements, ballots, recounts, and election notices, as well as, modify the handling of elections when a school district exceeds its property tax authority.

The Supreme Court indicates minimal fiscal impact due to providing judicial education but no additional resources are required.

The Secretary of State estimates no fiscal impact.

No fiscal impact.
