LB1169 revises Nebraska’s assault statutes that apply when the victim is a public safety officer or a health care professional. It defines “court operations officer” and adds that role to the definition of “public safety officer,” along with other specified responders and employees. The bill restructures the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd degree assault offenses so they apply to assaults on a public safety officer performing official duties or a health care professional on duty at a hospital or health clinic

The Nebraska Department of Correctional Services (NDCS) states the bill could increase the incarcerated population; however, the amount of impact is indeterminable at this time. NDCS reports the FY25 per diem cost is $33.73 per incarcerated individual ($12,309.72 annually).

The Supreme Court states minimal fiscal impact is anticipated for judicial education, and no additional resources are required.
