

ONE HUNDRED NINTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 183

Introduced by von Gillern, 4; Brandt, 32; Clements, 2; DeBoer, 10; DeKay, 40; Dorn, 30; Guereca, 7; Hallstrom, 1; Holdcroft, 36; Kauth, 31; Sanders, 45; Wordekemper, 15.

WHEREAS, Bill Huben has served as the dedicated and respected principal of St. Wenceslaus School in Omaha, Nebraska, for sixteen years, providing exceptional leadership, unwavering commitment, and a deep sense of faith to students, faculty, and the broader school community; and

WHEREAS, under Huben's guidance, St. Wenceslaus School has flourished as a center of academic excellence, moral development, and community service, upholding its mission to nurture the whole child in spirit, mind, and body; and

WHEREAS, Huben's career in education has been marked by integrity, compassion, and a passion for helping students grow into thoughtful, responsible, and faith-filled citizens; and

WHEREAS, colleagues, students, parents, and parishioners alike have benefited from Huben's steady leadership, sense of humor, and tireless work ethic; and

WHEREAS, Huben is now retiring, leaving behind a legacy of service that will impact generations of students and educators at St. Wenceslaus and across the Catholic school system in Nebraska.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE ONE HUNDRED NINTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Legislature congratulates Bill Huben on the occasion of his retirement and expresses sincere appreciation for his outstanding contributions to education and to the faith-based community of Nebraska.

2. That a copy of this resolution be sent to Bill Huben.
