

ONE HUNDRED NINTH LEGISLATURE

SECOND SESSION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 324

Introduced by DeKay, 40.

WHEREAS, the 2025 Nebraska School Activities Association Play Production Championships were held at the Johnny Carson Theatre in Norfolk, Nebraska, on December 10 through December 12; and

WHEREAS, the Hartington-Newcastle High School one-act team performed Epic Proportions winning the Class C-2 title and received high marks from all three judges; and

WHEREAS, the Wausa High School one-act team performed their home-brewed musical Breaking the Habit written by Sheila Housing, earned the Class D-1 title, and earned Wausa's fourth state championship in a row out of seventeen state championship titles; and

WHEREAS, the St. Mary's of O'Neill one-act team performed And a Child Shall Lead winning the Class D-2 title and earned two more awards: the Johnny Carson School of Theatre and Film award to Anna Otte and the most outstanding technical crew award naming Samantha Asche and Laura Otte as outstanding techies; and

WHEREAS, all three school's outstanding achievements are made possible through the support of teachers, administrators, parents, and the community; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes the academic, athletic, and artistic achievements of the youth of our state.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE ONE HUNDRED NINTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, SECOND SESSION:

1. That the Legislature congratulates Hartington-Newcastle High School, Wausa High School, and St. Mary's of O'Neill on earning the 2025 Nebraska School Activities Association Play Production state championship titles.

2. That copies of this resolution be sent to Hartington-Newcastle High School, Wausa High School, and St. Mary's of O'Neill.
