Sec. 3. Machine Vote, When. If a machine vote is called for, or if the presiding officer is in doubt, he shall cause the result to be obtained by means of the electric roll call system; and only the totals shall be printed in journal.

Sec. 4. Record Vote, Member May Demand. Any member may call for a record vote upon any question (Const. Art. III, Sec. 11), and upon declaration of the yeas and nays by the members, the record thereof shall be made and taken upon the electric roll call system, unless the Legislature by a majority vote decides that a roll call shall be taken.

Sec. 5. For Yeas and Nays and Call of House. Vote on Electric System: Limitation on Time to Vote. In taking the yeas and nays and upon call of the Legislature, the members shall register their vote upon the electric roll call system. When the yeas and nays are taken upon any question in the manner heretofore indicated, no member shall be permitted to vote after the decision is announced from the chair.

Sec. 6. When More Than Majority Vote Necessary, Electric System Used. In all instances where the vote, necessary to adopt a motion or other proposition, is other than that of a majority voting upon the question, the presiding officer shall, unless the Legislature by unanimous vote decides otherwise, cause the result thereof to be obtained by means of the electric roll call system. In such case, no member shall be permitted to vote after the yeas have been announced by the Clerk. Votes not registered on the electric roll call system or given to the Clerk by voice shall not be counted for or against a proposition.

Sec. 7. Member May Demand Verification of Vote. Any member may demand verification of the vote on roll call; Provided, that on the final passage of bills verification shall always be made.

Sec. 8. Call of the Legislature. A call of the Legislature must be seconded by at least five members. Thereupon, and upon call of the presiding officer, each member present shall indicate his presence upon the electric roll call system and shall remain in his seat during the call. After the Clerk shall note the names of the absentees, proceedings under the call may be suspended at any time by a majority vote of the members elected, and when so suspended shall not again be ordered on the proposition pending, except by a majority vote of the members present and voting thereon. When the Legislature has been under call for fifteen minutes, and if all absentees were to vote on one side of the question, and if their combined vote would be insufficient to change the result of the vote, the President shall declare the call raised.

Sec. 2. Motions Must be Written, When. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the presiding officer or any member desires it.

Sec. 3. Withdrawal or Modification of Motions. After a motion has been stated by the presiding officer, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed in possession of the Legislature, but may be withdrawn or modified by the mover at any time before a decision, amendment, or ordering of the yeas and nays, except a motion to reconsider, which shall not be withdrawn without leave.

Sec. 4. Motions Received When Questions Under Debate: Precedence. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but:

- a. To adjourn.
- b. To lay on the table.
- c. For the previous question.
- d. To postpone to a certain time.
- e. To commit.
- f. To amend.
- g. To postpone indefinitely.

Such motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged; except that motions to postpone indefinitely and amend do not yield to each other. No motion to postpone to a certain time, to commit or to postpone indefinitely being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

Sec. 5. Motion to Strike Enacting Clause; Effect, Precedence. A motion to strike the enacting clause of a bill, if carried, is equivalent to rejection of the bill. Such motion shall not have precedence over a motion to amend nor over a motion to postpone indefinitely.

Sec. 6. Motion to Adjourn, Adjourn to Time Certain, to Recess; Precedence. A motion to adjourn, or a motion to fix the day to which the Legislature shall adjourn shall always be in order, except:

- a. While a member is speaking.
- b. When a motion to adjourn has just been defeated.
- c. When a motion to fix the day to which the Legislature shall adjourn has just been defeated.
- d. After the Final Reading of a bill and during roll call thereon.

Provided, however, that a motion to adjourn to a time certain shall have precedence over a motion to adjourn; and provided further, that a motion to recess shall take precedence over either of such motions.

Sec. 7. Motion to Adjourn Pending Motion to Suspend Rules. Pending a motion to suspend the rules, the presiding officer may entertain one motion to adjourn, but after the result thereon is announced he shall entertain no other motion until the vote has been taken on suspension.

Sec. 8. The Previous Question, Form. The previous question shall be in this form, "Shall the debate now close?"

Sec. 9. The Previous Question: Seconds Required, Vote Necessary, Effect. The previous question shall be in order when demanded by five or more members and must be sustained by the vote of a majority of the elected members, and until decided shall, except as provided in Section 11 of this rule, preclude further debate and all amendments and motions, except one motion to adjourn and one motion to lay on the table.

Sec. 10. Previous Question Undebatable. On a previous question there shall be no debate. All incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for a previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

Sec. 11. Previous Question Ordered: Proponent to Close Debate. When the previous question shall have been ordered on a proposition under debate, the mover, proponent or introducer of such proposition shall be given the right to close the debate thereon.

Sec. 12. Questions of Privilege, What Are. Questions of privilege shall be, first, those affecting the rights of the Legislature collectively, its safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings; second, the rights, reputation, and conduct of members, individually, in their representative capacity only; and shall have precedence over all other questions, except motions to adjourn. Questions of privilege shall not be used to permit any discussion or debate pertaining to any measure pending before the Legislature. All questions of privilege shall be channeled through the presiding officer and the reason for such stated. The decision of order of permission shall be made by the presiding officer.

Question of privilege is not in order for introduction of guests while member speaking. Rule 4, Sec. 6.

Sec. 13. Reconsideration: Who May Move, Time for Motion. When a question has been decided, it shall be in order for any member voting with the prevailing side, or not voting, to move a reconsideration thereof. A motion to reconsider must be made on the same day the original question was decided or on the next legislative day, except when it be to reconsider the vote on a bill which lacked the constitutional majority on a Final Reading. In such case, it must be made on the same day the original question was decided or on one of the next three legislative days. A motion to reconsider must be disposed of by the Legislature within 5 days after making the same or it shall be deemed defeated. If the Legislature shall refuse to reconsider, or upon reconsideration shall affirm its first decision, no further motion to reconsider shall be in order unless by unanimous consent.

Motion to reconsider cannot be withdrawn without leave. Rule 10, Sec. 3.

Sec. 14. Reconsideration, Precedence. Every motion to reconsider shall take precedence over all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

Sec. 15. Reconsideration, Vote Necessary. For its adoption, a motion to reconsider shall require the vote of a majority of the elected members, except:

- a. Where such motion be to reconsider the vote on a bill which lacked the constitutional majority on a Final Reading, then a three-fifths vote shall be required for adoption.
- b. Where such motion be to reconsider the vote on a bill which lacked the constitutional majority on a Final Reading with the emergency clause attached, but which received the constitutional majority with the emergency clause stricken and the purpose of the motion is to again add the emergency clause, then a two-thirds vote of the elected members shall be required for adoption.

Sec. 16. Amendments in Order. When a motion or other proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order.

Sec. 17. Amendment to Title of Bills. Amendments to the title shall not be in order during the consideration of a bill or resolution on General or Select File until the bill or resolution shall have been considered in full.

Sec. 18. Amendment Laid on Table Does Not Carry Principle Measure. When an amendment proposed to any pending measure is laid on the table, it shall not carry with it or prejudice such measure.

Sec. 19. Amendments, Preference in Consideration. When the Legislature is considering bills on either General or Select File, after giving consideration to standing committee amendments, it shall give preference to such amendments as may have been on file with the Clerk, with copies on the members' desks for one legislative day in advance, and then to such other amendments as have been deposited with the Clerk, in the order in which they were received by him.

Sec. 20. Amendments, Must Be Germane. No motion, proposition or subject, different from that under consideration, shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Sec. 21. Division of a Question, When. Any member may call for the division of a question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Legislature. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out, being lost, shall not preclude an amendment or a motion to strike out or insert.

RULE 11

Bills—General Provisions

Sec. 1. Introduction. Upon call for the introduction of bills, any member or any standing committee to which bills are referred for consideration may introduce one or more bills. Sec. 6. Amendatory Bill, How Printed. An amendatory bill or constitutional provision shall be so prepared and printed as to show the new matter proposed, old matter to be retained, and old matter to be omitted from the Statutes or Constitution.

Sec. 7. Bills Must Be Engrossed Before Final Reading. All bills, before being advanced to Final Reading and passage, shall be engrossed by typewriter, and if amended, shall be reprinted in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, and copies thereof shall be supplied for the use of members.

Sec. 8. Bills Must Receive Two Readings Before Passage. Every bill and resolution shall be read by title when introduced, and a printed copy thereof provided for the use of each member, and the bill and all amendments thereto shall be printed and read at large before the vote is taken upon its final passage. (Const. Art. III, Sec. 14.)

Sec. 9. Vote Required to Expend Money or Change Compensation. It shall require the vote of a majority of the members elected to expend money by the Legislature or to change the compensation of any officer or employee.

Sec. 10. Withdrawal of Bills. No bill, having been introduced, may be withdrawn except upon motion of the first introducer with the consent of his co-introducers. Morrison, Governor of the State of Nebraska, the Seventy-sixth (Extraordinary) Session of the Legislature of Nebraska assembled in Legislative Hall of the Capitol Building at the hour of 9:00 a.m., June 6, 1966, and was called to order by President Philip C. Sorensen.

Prayer

We ask thy guidance, O God, upon each and all of us as we begin this special session. Clarify our understanding of the monetary problems facing us, and unite us in a common effort for their solutions. Deliver us from futile hopes and from looking back, that we may move into ever widening horizons. Where we cannot convince, let us be willing to persuade, and help us to see that small deeds accomplished are better than great deeds imagined. We know that we cannot do everything this session, but help us to do that which is necessary, for our sakes, for our people's sakes, and for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Governor's Message

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the Legislature:

This special session of the Legislature is called pursuant to the provisions of our Constitution, which in Article IV, Section 8, provides:

"The Governor may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the Legislature by proclamation, stating therein the purpose for which they are convened, and the Legislature shall enter upon no business except that for which they were called together."

Our Supreme Court in Arrow Club, Inc. v. Nebraska Liquor Control Commission, 177 Neb. 686, 1964, in considering this provision quoted:

"This constitutional provision contemplates that there shall first exist in the executive mind a definite conception of the public emergency which demands an extraordinary session."

It is the Governor's responsibility to limit special session calls to crises created by emergencies, which did not exist at the time of the regular session, or to situations which cannot await the next regular session.

The decision in the Rehkopf case created an emergency, which did not exist at the time of the last regular session. In this case the Supreme Court of Nebraska held that "The proper construction of Section 77-722, R. R. S. 1943" required shares of foreign corporation stock to be valued at book value," . . . although this construction results in the property being valued at a fraction of its actual value or fair market value."

This is contrary to the policy previously followed by assessors. Market value in most cases is much higher than book value.

This new interpretation creates a financial crises in local political subdivisions, particularly within our school districts, cities and villages, because of the unanticipated reduction in revenue. The state tax commissioner placed the tax dollar loss at no less than three million dollars.

What will happen if we do not return to the practice which has been utilized for the past forty years? Higher property taxes will have to be levied on our farmers, businessmen and homeowners, and in certain areas there will be a curtailment of essential services and programs. Budget expectations will not be met. Local governmental and school services will suffer.

This court decision constitutes an unforeseen crisis which the last session of the Legislature could not have foreseen and a situation which will not await the next regular session of the Legislature. I, therefore, have called you into special session.

The proposed solutions which the Governor's office has prepared are only interim in nature and should not be construed as permanent policy. I am not asking that you undertake a general tax reorganization. This is properly a function of the next regular legislative session which will convene in just a few months. General tax recommendations will be made at that time.

It would have been a violation of the spirit of the Constitution to have broadened the call to consider the general tax situation. This area was given detailed attention and study in the last session.

More than 100 of the 1965 Session's 937 bills dealt with taxation, ranging from repeal of the intangible and franchise taxes through penalties to local sales and cigarette taxes, comprehensive intangible tax revision, and the general sales and income tax proposals.

There have been no major changes in the general tax picture since the last legislative session which extended from January to August. The Constitution was not framed to permit the Governor's call to force the Legislature to reconsider the decisions of the regular session.

I was asked to include a number of items in my special session call. In reviewing these requests, I considered whether there existed a crisis or situation which did not exist at the time of the last regular session, and whether the solution to any of these problems could not await the considered action of the next regular session of the Legislature.

Among the items suggested were the University of Nebraska's budget problem and the mechanical questions of LB 301, the educational service unit measure. The University does have a problem that must be met, but it can be deferred until the next regular session without curtailing any of its activities. The mechanics of LB 301 can, and must be, improved at the next regular session, but there has been no court decision changing 301 since its adoption.

I have called this extraordinary session of the Legislature for the purpose of considering and, if deeming it advisable, enacting legislation relating to the following subjects:

1. Changing the method of valuing the stock of foreign corporations for purposes of taxation from book value to fair market value.
2. The amendment or repeal of Section 77-1736.04, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, as amended by Chapter 494, Laws of Nebraska, 1965, relating to refund of taxes and penalties.
3. To appropriate funds for the necessary expenses of the extraordinary session herein called.

The remedial legislation has been prepared and I have asked Senator Burbach, Chairman of the Revenue Committee, and Senator Gerdes of the Budget Committee to serve as introducers. I respectfully request your favorable consideration.

The Committee escorted the Governor from the Chamber.

MOTION—Committee Appointments

Mr. President: I move that the two new members, Ellen E. Craft and Donald Elrod, be appointed to the committees on which their Stop us, O God, for a minute of prayer. Stop our anxious minds from wandering, and our hearts from desiring anything but to know Thy will and the good of the people. Let us stand at attention before Thee and hear what Thou hast to say to us. We believe that Thou canst tell us not only what to do, but also how to do it, and when. If it needs making up our minds, thou who didst make our minds can show us how to make them up. If it needs changing our minds, thou canst work that miracle, too. Speak, O Lord, and make us hear, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Print in Journal

Mr. Carpenter asked unanimous consent to have the following material printed in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

- I. If the Supreme Court affirms district court, the following immediate steps must be accomplished:
  1. Income Tax Rate for Calendar Year 1967 must be determined by the State Board prior to September 1, 1966.
  2. Complete withholding system must be operational by January 1, 1967. This includes every employee in Nebraska having signed a form equivalent to a federal W-4 form.
- II. In computing the amount of the Tax Rate for 1967 the State Board of Equalization and Assessment will have to do the following:
  1. Determine the fixed appropriations for fiscal year, 1966-67, that is July 1, 1966 to June 30, 1967.
  2. Subtract unappropriated miscellaneous receipts and fees (estimated annually in advance).

Then the State Board must consider the probable net income taxable under the provisions of this act during the subsequent calendar year and an estimate of the amount that shall be available in the General Fund at the conclusion of the present calendar year.

The board has got to be right in estimating (1) taxable income 16 months in advance (2) General fund balance four months in advance. And, in addition, it is possible that this formula approach may restrict the first year of the biennium.

These taxes levied in 1967 will not be due until April of 1968 with the exception of withholding which is significant and will be collected during the year.

Approximately 60% of 1966 property taxes will not be collected until during the calendar year, 1967. At the same time withholding taxes will be collecting better than 50% of the 1967 taxes.

Consequently we will be collecting the largest share of the 1966 and the 1967 State Tax at the same time.

Explanation of Vote

Had I been present I would have voted "nay" on the amendment to LB 2.

(Signed) Donald Elrod

Adjournment

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Our Father, give us the faith to believe that it is possible for us to live victoriously even in the midst of dangerous opportunity that we call crisis. Help us to see that there is something better than patient endurance or keeping a stiff upper lip, and that whistling in the dark is not really bravery. Trusting in Thee, may we have the faith that goes singing in the rain, knowing that all things work together for good to them that love Thee. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—SEVENTY-SIXTH SESSION

SEVENTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Monday, June 13, 1966

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Sorensen presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

O God, our Father, in these days when men freely judge and condemn each other, remind us all that we stand before Thee in judgment. Thou knowest whether we have been voices or merely echoes, whether we have done Thy will or our own, or worse still, have done neither. Teach us, O Lord, that only thy "well done" will afford peace and everlasting happiness. May we strive for that rather than the approval of men, which is but for a little while. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Carpenter and Fleming, who were excused and Mr. Carstens, who was excused until 9:10 a.m.

The Journals for the Fifth and Sixth Days were approved.
