

February 27, 1979

LB 316

SENATOR KELLY: That is correct. That is correct.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay.

SENATOR KELLY: If this is entered, I must take this up sometime within the next five days or it is automatically defeated.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes, sir.

SENATOR KELLY: Okay, thank you very much.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Simon, your light is on.

SENATOR SIMON: First, just a point of clarification. Are we then discussing the Kelly motion or are we going to...? Senator Kelly. I will yield to Senator Kelly.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the Chair recognizes Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. Speaker, the quarterback just informed me that we should take the motion up now so I move that we reconsider Senator Nichol's amendment to LB 316 found on page 620 of the Journal and I would call upon the introducer of that amendment, Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator Nichol. I'm sorry, Senator Simon, does this clarify your point?

SENATOR SIMON: No, I just wanted to find out. Okay, now I would like to call the previous question because I have not spoken.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Simon, I am going to rule that Senator Nichol has a chance to speak and then we will take your motion.

SENATOR SIMON: Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Okay, I was ready to battle. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is an amendment that we voted on the other day. I certainly think this is the way it should be done. The general right of privacy act should be handled in the bill that has handled it in Judiciary and is still there. Of course I have tried to get it out. I have been trying in the past to get it out. I think it will get out. I will not promise anything in the world on it. Of course nobody would expect that,