

April 19, 1979

LB 152

I rise to oppose Senator Venditte's motion here or on Select File. Senator Venditte, Senator Goodrich, Omaha would not have a problem if the men in Omaha were not out looking for the women in Omaha for sale.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Well, Mr....(interruption)

SPEAKER MARVEL: Sorry, but we cannot have demonstrations.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. Chairman, I merely rise in self-defense since my district has been mentioned in this debate, and I want to assure Senator Venditte that the sins of the 7th District have not yet permeated the 43rd Legislative District.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Chambers, do you want to...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, to show how this issue...I'm glad for Senator Marsh's comment. There was a very recent occurrence in Omaha where a number of police officers were involved with a prostitute. It was embarrassment to Chief Anderson. It was an embarrassment to the Mayor. It was an embarrassment to everybody. I'm dealing with the amendment which is before us. We're talking about prostitution and the definition, and I'm showing the categories of people who get involved...

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Chambers, just a second.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, if he wants to make his point, alright.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Just a second, make your point.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Well, Mr. President, we're talking about my amendment and not police officers that Senator Chambers is talking about. How is that germane to the amendment that's now before the body?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Chambers, you will keep your remarks germane, alright?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, my method of addressing myself is a bit more...it goes to a little greater depth and variety than that used by Senator Venditte, because we have different backgrounds and different levels of education, so I think it is improper to try to restrict the manner by