

are concerned. We are perpetuating that kind of business in the City of Omaha, and Senator Lamb, the kind of activity that's going on is not in the 7th District, it's just outside my district. I'm not just exactly sure if most of you people in the rural delegation know what kinds of problems we have in the city. I would suspect that you don't. Most of you probably never come to the City of Omaha, unless of course it's for a public hearing or maybe perhaps to do some shopping. That is, of course, probably about the only time you're in the Legislature, you may take a jaunt to Omaha, and we have a problem. This certainly is one of our most pressing problems right now. I am sure if it were not, Gary Bucchino, the Chief, wouldn't have bothered to take this issue up with me. I'm surprised that there have not been more members of the Omaha delegation responding. I know I just spoke with Senator Labeledz and Senator Goodrich on this very matter. They have been told. I think what Senator Chambers is trying to do is trying to cover up the issue. He is saying that we cannot handle the situation, there is no way. Well, we had handled it before...we had handled it before. We can handle it again with the same kind of amendment that I have proposed to the Legislature, and if you will give the City of Omaha that kind of law enforcement leverage, we can, yes indeed, we can...we can put prostitution as something of the past. If you don't change the law, ladies and gentlemen, we're going to continue to have the problem. That day when I spoke with Senator DeCamp about this, he chuckled, he laughed. He said, well don't talk to me, talk to Senator Fowler, and Senator Fowler was walking right by, and I said, Steve, I said, this is the problem and John was right there and Steve kept walking and chuckling as if well, it's not a Lincoln problem why should I be concerned.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Venditte, you raised a point of order on germaneness, will you please stick to your request?

SENATOR VENDITTE: Well, Mr. Speaker, I am indeed doing just that. We are talking about the proponents of this citation system that is now law.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Alright, I'm being tolerant so please stick to the....(interruption)

SENATOR VENDITTE: I am trying to be too, Mr. President, and I'm talking to the original proposer of the citation system here in the state, Senator John DeCamp and Senator Steve Fowler, and I guess my point...
