LB 138

Oh, I am sorry. Excuse me. You are right. All those in favor of the committee amendments vote aye, opposed no. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 11 nays on adoption of the committee amendments.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the motion is carried and the committee amendments are adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I may, Senator Goodrich and Kahle had amendments pending but I understand you wish to withdraw those. Those are the ones that were in the Journal, Senator. Those are the ones that were in the Journal that we talked about this morning. Okay.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Those are the Goodrich-Kahle amendments. Is that right? Okay. Is there any objection? Okay, it is the prerogative of those who introduced the bill to withdraw them. They are withdrawn.

SENATOR KAHLE: Thank you. I move the bill, 138, to Select File, E & R for initial.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is to...

SENATOR KAHLE: E & R for...(interruption).

SPEAKER MARVEL: You are as bad as I am this morning. The motion is to advance the bill to E & R for review. Senator Cullan, your light is on. Do you have any comments?

SENATOR CULLAN: If there are further lights on I will call the question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Haberman's light is on.

SENATOR CULLAN: I will call the question. I call the question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the question has been called for. Are there five hands? Shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Okay.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 1 nay, 25 ayes, 7 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is... Debate is ceased. The motion is the advancement of the bill. Senator Kahle, you
