

May 1, 1979

LB 587

things and they don't always agree, but I'd like to stick up for the Regents that come from my general area. I think they're every bit as intelligent as we are, and able to make decisions. I know that they probably made a mistake this time and overstepped their authority, but by penalizing the complete University system, which is what you're doing, the Regents aren't going to get hurt by this, it's going to be some department, or as Senator Koch said, some students, or Senator Marsh, some student or students. I think we should either fund it, or not fund it, but I don't think we should do it under the guise of trying to punish somebody. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator DeCamp, your light's on. The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? All those in favor of the House going under Call vote aye. Opposed vote no. I'm sorry, what did I say? Okay, cease debate. Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 1 nay to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Now the Chair calls on Senator Frank Lewis to close on his amendment to the amendment. Is that right, Pat? We're dealing with his amendment to...as amended. Okay.

SENATOR LEWIS: Well, I think Mr. Chairman, I've said everything that needs to be said and I think I've put it forward to you in a straightforward, honest, candid, easy-going manner and I'd hope you would adopt it.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the adoption of the Lewis amendment as amended. All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. Have you all voted?

SENATOR LEWIS: Mr. President, I move that we go under Call.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is, shall the House go under Call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. Record.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 1 nay to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The House is under Call. All legislators take your seats. Record your presence. See that all unauthorized personnel leaves the floor. Senator Warner. Senator Maresh. Senator Merz. Senator Hasebroock. Senator Nichol. Senator Pirsch. Senator Vickers, would you record your presence, please? Senator Lewis, we're down,

4371