LB 585

CLERK: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT: The motion carried. The amendment is adopted. Alright, Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I move that LB 585 be readvanced to E & R for Engrossment.

PRESIDENT: Motion to readvance LB 585 to E & R for Engrossment. All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed nay. Machine vote has been requested. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Machine vote. The House is under Call. Will all members please resume their positions at their desks? The motion is the advance of LB 585...readvance to E & R for Engrossment. All members please be at their desks. The House is under Call. Are all members at their desks? Have you all voted?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr....okay, I guess ask for a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Alright.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Unless we can do her.

PRESIDENT: Alright, we'll have a roll call vote and that will be it, and would the Sergeant at Arms make sure that all members are at their desks? The House is under Call before somebody brings that point up. Let's everybody be at their desks. While I'm looking out here I think that everybody is...I think Senator...alright. Proceed then with the roll call vote.

CLERK: (Roll call vote was taken which may be found on Pages 1948 and 1949 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: The Chair is going to note that Senator Hefner and Senator Kennedy are not here at their desks and have not been excused to my knowledge. Is that correct? Is that correct, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir. They have not been excused.

PRESIDENT: Alright, in keeping with the policy that I said I was going to follow the other day, Senator DeCamp, do you want those two senators here, Senator DeCamp? Senator Hefner and Senator Kennedy.
