LB 152

SENATOR DeCAMP: Precisely except there was a screw up in the original ones. When you say less than three hundred or more than three hundred, what happens with $300 bets?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I have no objection, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the amendment is withdrawn. Now, Senator DeCamp, do you have another amendment?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp and Fitzgerald move to return LB 152 to Select File for a specific amendment.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, I move the adoption of the amendment. The amendment puts a felony in that a lot of people are concerned about for second offense bookmaking. There was a technical correction that I just mentioned that Senator Wesely through the Lincoln Police Department or county attorney or some person found. That is incorporated in there. Senator Fitzgerald has in there something that he feels is important and I think is kind of bright. These pickle cards that are flying all over like spaghetti he has that the nonprofit organizations are the ones that are floating them has to keep a record of where they are floating these all out to so that some bar or some shoe store or something has a pile of pickle cards can't say, oh, yes, this is for the little poor children or whatever. I move adoption of the amendments. Paul Douglas is satisfied with them and wants to see them adopted, any number of other people I guess do.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Chambers, do you wish to be recognized?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Also put the gambling records and that kind of...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Wait, Senator DeCamp, I have been recognized but I want to ask you a question. Could you tell me what elements are in this amendment now because I think I want a division of the question?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are they in the Journal or these are different?

SENATOR DeCAMP: No, they are in the Journal, Ernie.
