if there is any deviation from it after Monday morning. Now Pat, did I leave anything out? Does anybody have any questions at the moment? Senator Kelly?

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. Speaker, what would be in your mind to use the ninety day next week? A vote from the Legislature, or what are we going to do with that day?

SPEAKER MARVEL: You mean with that extra day? Well, if...

SENATOR KELLY: You want to adjourn on Wednesday but somebody else is going to not want to do that. How are we going to settle that then?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Well all the business will have been conducted by then, Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: You're a big boy, Dick. Who is going to want the day?

SPEAKER MARVEL: I don't really....I don't really anticipate the need for the day unless Enrollment and Review gets into trouble downstairs because we shoved too much to them on Monday. If we shove too big a workload and we shouldn't have because the stream has been fairly steady. The only problem we will get into is that if they bog down, and I guess I can tell you that they have orders not to bog down, and the orders are not from me, they're from you. From me on your behalf.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: I'm not sure that I...well, we'll let it go at that then. Senator Kahle.

SENATOR KAHLE: Mr. Speaker, the bill that we just worked on, when will that come up again? Monday?

CLERK: Senator, it will be at earliest Tuesday I should think...more likely Wednesday.

SENATOR KAHLE: Will this give the Governor time to have his crack at it and get it back to us before we retire for the year?

SENATOR MARVEL: Everything that we pass the day before sine die he'd have back to us so we can act on it.

SENATOR KAHLE: Okay, thank you.
