

and we can waste and spend more time on this today but I would rather see us do it in a responsible manner, send this resolution to committee. It is my understanding that Senator Newell does have a motion before the Clerk's desk to do exactly that. I would suggest that looking at the types of legislation that we have dealt with, looking at the resolutions that we have dealt with in the past never at least since I have been down here have we acted on anything of such great importance without holding a public hearing. I would implore the members of this body, I realize the hour is late. But again I feel that it would be most irresponsible to act upon this measure at this time.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Clerk has a motion on the desk. The Clerk will read the motion.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senators Marsh, Hoagland, Johnson, Sieck, Koch, Chambers, Landis, Newell and Fowler, move to, and Simon, move to refer LR 30 to the Government Committee for a public hearing.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Is that a motion?

CLERK: Yes sir.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay. The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? What is the point?

SENATOR NEWELL: I'm not sure, but I don't know the rules to be such, but I thought that most motions the introducer has at least five minutes, in fact the rule says ten minutes to introduce that. Now I'm all for the question and I'm sure that the time is short and I know that a railroad job is necessary but the "toot toot" ought to be delayed until I at least introduce or explain the purpose for my motion.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the Chair gives you that right and the Chair only takes exception to you when you accuse people of railroading. Okay.

SENATOR NEWELL: It was not the Speaker that I was speaking about. It was my good friend....

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell you are recognized to explain your motion.

SENATOR NEWELL: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. President, members of the body before the anxiety to move this bill or this resolution along, I felt that it was necessary to offer
