concern about. If we truly believe that the sales tax on food is not right, if we are truly designing, trying to come up with a credit that would be realistic, then by bringing 144 to the floor, and that could be done, then we would definitely have the revenue to see that that is taken care of.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Hefner. The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? I do see five hands. The question then is, shall debate cease on the amendment to the amendment? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Has anybody voted? Senator Hefner, what do you wish to do? It is going to take until noon to get those people in here to vote.

SENATOR HEFNER: Let's have a Call of the House.

PRESIDENT: All right, withdraw what is on the Board. We'll go to a vote on a Call of the House. All in favor of a Call of the House vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 0 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. The Sergeant at Arms will now bring in all the members that are not on the floor back on the floor at their desks, all nonlegislative unauthorized personnel will leave the floor. All legislators will register your presence at this time. Senator Haberman and Senator Fitzgerald. Yes, we want to get you here so we can wish you a Happy Birthday so why don't you get to your seat and I'll wish you a Happy Birthday. While the Imperial wizard is going to his desk, I would just like to announce that there is another January, 56, so it is a Happy Birthday to Senator Haberman on his 56th birthday today. Did you register your presence, Senator Haberman? Senator Fitzgerald is here, too. Okay we are all here. Call the roll. The question, Mr. Clerk, do you want to take call ins? It is just on to cease debate so could we have call ins.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Stoney voting aye. Senator Kelly voting aye. Senator Nichol voting aye, Senator Hoagland voting aye. Senator Fitzgerald voting aye. Senator Merz voting aye. Senator Sieck had voted aye. Senator Clark voting aye. Senator Beutler voting aye. Senator Carsten voting aye. Senator George voting aye.

PRESIDENT: All right, do you want to record the vote?
