LB 986

amendments to 986. Senator George, do you have any closing on those amendments?

SENATOR GEORGE: No, as I mentioned before, it is simply a correction of language and I move the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All those in favor of adopting the committee amendments to 986 vote aye, opposed no. Voting on the committee amendments to LB 986. Have you all voted? We are voting on the committee amendments to LB 986. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Senator George.

SENATOR GEORGE: Mr. President, I hate to really come and have a Call of the House. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Record.

SENATOR GEORGE: Thank you.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of the committee amendments.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is carried. The amendment's adopted. The Chair now recognizes Senator Fowler.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Fowler's amendments are on page 896 and 897 of the Journal.

SENATOR FOWLER: The amendments are on page 896 and 897 of the Journal, and for Senator Murphy's benefit to identify the authorship, the first amendment comes from the pelicans and the rest are from the fish, so that might clarify the source of those. The first...there are really four concepts in the amendments but I would move them all at once. The first one deals with, as Senator Murphy indicated, the Attorney General had indicated the language that says we shall follow the federal act and any subsequent amendments to that act, is probably too broad in terms of delegation of some sort of state powers to congressional actions. So we just put the most recent federal community development act to date, which is 1977, which is more recent than what is currently mentioned in the law, and strike that language that says "and all subsequent amendments". Then the other amendments are of concerns that I had about the bill and have been agreed to by those pushing the bill. The first amendment deals in the area of parking facilities to make it clear that it is public parking. I am sure that under the constitutional as well as tax restrictions that this
