

March 10, 1980

LB 814

But on 306 not much weight was given to the fact that there was a homestead exemption protecting those people also. Oh, there would be a loophole created in the law here for creditors if we allowed this amendment, says Senator Johnson. But not much weight was given to the loophole that 306 sought to close. There was a little talk of bankruptcy and the protection of bankruptcy, but bankruptcy protected the people in 306 too. So all I am saying is, let's be consistent. Let's have a consistent theory here in this Legislature, or at least within a time span of one year let's be consistent. The point with this bill is again that it does allow without the amendment a situation where an innocent spouse and children could be turned out of a home. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion before the House is the return of the bill for a specific amendment. All those in favor 814 being returned vote aye, opposed vote no. The motion is to return the bill. Have you all voted? Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker, I would like a Call of the House and a roll call vote.

SPEAKER MARVEL: We are under Call, but you can request that we register our presence and then you want a roll call vote? Is that your request?

SENATOR BEUTLER: So requested, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay. First of all, record your presence. Senator Murphy, Senator Koch, Senator Warner, Senator Keyes, Senator Schmit, Senator Chronister, Senator Fitzgerald, Senator Nichol and Senator Haberman. Ray, Senator Nichol and Senator Haberman. All but one are present, Senator Beutler. Do you want to proceed with the roll call? All but Senator Haberman are present.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes, sir.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Clerk will call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote was taken as found on page 1074 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: We are still under Call. All legislators please be in their seats. I am going to hold up the announcement of the Call until all legislators are in their seats. Okay, announce the vote.