

March 26, 1980

LB 1002

PRESIDENT: All right, the motion is, shall the House go under Call. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We are voting on, shall the House go under Call. Record the vote.

CLERK: 17 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. The Sergeant at Arms will bring in all members, get the Executive Board back and we will proceed with the... All unauthorized people leave the floor. All legislators register your presence. The House is under Call.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Kelly would like to remind the Administrative Rules and Regulations Committee that they will have an executive session over the noon hour today in Room 1113.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Marsh for purpose of an announcement while we are waiting for people to register in.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, the Committee on Committees was scheduled to meet at twelve-ten and we have eight persons waiting to be heard who are now waiting for us to be excused. I would encourage each member of Committee on Committees as soon as we adjourn to arrive promptly so we could start since we only have an hour for lunch.

PRESIDENT: All right, thank you, Senator Marsh. Have we all registered our presence? Do you want to take any call ins, Senator Murphy? All right.

CLERK: Senator Sleck voting aye, Senator Cope voting aye, Senator Maresh changing from no to yes. You had voted aye, Senator.

PRESIDENT: We are taking call in votes on the Murphy amendment to LB 1002. We are taking call in votes on the Murphy amendment to LB 1002.

CLERK: Senator Fowler voting no, Senator Lamb voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Record the vote.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 9 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the Murphy amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The Murphy amendment is adopted.