

SENATOR GEORGE: Senator Murphy, no we don't have a printing press in the basement, you know it, and you are for a balanced budget, aren't you. Therefore, if you want to spend it you most certainly have to raise it and this is the best way to raise it.

SENATOR CLARK: Does anyone else wish to speak on the George amendment? Hold your hand up. I have got so many lights up here I can't tell who is doing what. All right, the question before the House then is the adoption of the George amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay.

SENATOR GEORGE: Mr. President, I believe in order to facilitate this and save some time I would like to have a Call of the House and a roll call. I want to know where everybody stands on this one before the kill motion comes up on 882.

SENATOR CLARK: A Call of the House has been asked for. All those in favor of a Call of the House vote aye, all those opposed vote nay.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 4 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

SENATOR CLARK: The House is under Call. All legislators will return to their seats. All unauthorized personnel will leave the floor. Check in please. Will you all check in please. Senator Powers, Senator Murphy, Senator Keyes, Senator Reutzel, will you check in please. Senator Fitzgerald, Senator Keyes, would you poke your green button please. Senator Reutzel, Senator Chambers. Did you want a record vote or a roll call vote Senator George?

SENATOR GEORGE: How many are excused? Yes, I would like to have a roll call vote.

SENATOR CLARK: We have three excused.

SENATOR GEORGE: Then who is missing?

SENATOR CLARK: We are short Senator Chambers.

SENATOR GEORGE: I hope that he has his box on and he might descend from his lofty heights of his office.

SENATOR CLARK: Do you wish a roll call?

SENATOR GEORGE: Yes, please.

SENATOR CLARK: All right, call the roll.
