LB 993

it is an indictment of us to some degree. We argue about millions of dollars in other cases. We are arguing about several thousands of dollars here. We are talking about she is being adequately taken care of in a nursing home. That is right, in a nursing home. How do you know how adequate she is? Do any one of you know? Do any one of you know to what extent she has wealth? I doubt it. She is in a nursing home. I go there frequently and visit my mother in law and I am not always excited when I see it. I'm just saying she is deserving of this $38,000. Forget the attorneys. You ought to be talking about what she actually deserves under terms of a previous gift that was in 1944.
