the Legislature itself owes you some gratitude for the help and the assistance you have given to him and I would offer that. Thank you again to the Murphys. Now the next motion is by Senator Kennedy. The Chair recognizes Senator Kennedy.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Mr. President, it is a little bit tough to follow Senator Murphy. I am glad the microphone here has not been wore out by my conversation in the past few years. I do have a motion here. Mr. President, I move that the Legislature approve the preparation and printing of the permanent Legislative Journal, Session Laws, and Indexes by Patrick J. O'Donnell, and that he be directed to send to each member of the Legislature a copy of the loose-leaf Session Laws and of the permanent Journal and Session Laws. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion by Senator Kennedy. All those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed nay. The Kennedy motion passes. Next we have a motion by Senator Simon. The Chair recognizes Senator Simon.

SENATOR SIMON: Mr. President, a point of personal privilege if I might.

PRESIDENT: You may proceed, Senator Simon.

SENATOR SIMON: Obviously, I don't think it has fully hit me yet and it probably won't until January how much I am going to miss this place and even though I have only served here four years and the other three members served here eight, it seems like I have been here eight years at least and I will miss it and it has been quite an experience and I value the friendships that I have made. Mr. President, I move that we present Don Wesely with a briefcase in appreciation of his serving as Chairman of Enrollment and Review, and I was going to amend that to say not to exceed $1.98 but that's all right.

PRESIDENT: Let's pass this one first.

SENATOR SIMON: We won't offer the amendment.

PRESIDENT: All right. You have heard the motion by Senator Simon. All those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed nay. The motion carries and you can give him his briefcase. Congratulations. I think Senator Reutzel had something that goes with that. Would you care to be recognized at this point, Senator Reutzel? I recognize
