

January 7, 1981

position, his integrity and his candidness, and it is to me if the Executive Committee is to function as it should in a very fair and equitable fashion, I have great faith in this individual that he will do that job in a very fine fashion which will lend itself to the dignity of this body. It is with great pleasure that I place in nomination the name of Senator Dworak, the gentleman from Columbus whose record I believe needs not to be accounted to you. It is absolutely without blemish and it is with deep respect that I hope you will consider him for this position. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, it is difficult for me to make a nominating speech as interesting as Senator Chambers, but I do wish to enter the name of Senator Elroy Hefner as Vice Chairman of the Executive Board. For those of you who have been in the Legislature I am sure I need not describe him to you or for what he stands or his integrity, but for those of you who are new, you perhaps have all met him and I highly recommend him to you. Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Elroy Hefner.

PRESIDENT: Any further nominations for the Vice Chairman of the Executive Board. Hearing none we will proceed with the election but the Chair wants to announce that if on the first ballot we do not have one receiving a majority of the votes, the procedure has been and this Chair will follow that procedure of dropping the person with the least number of votes of the three candidates, three nominees, and then we will proceed with the other two until we get a majority vote or ballot with a majority vote. Now before we do that, if those who are still nominated...Senator Chambers, do you have any further remarks at this point as a nominee?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, I am in dead earnest now. You all know that should I be on the Executive Board I will be absolutely fair. I will not be intimidated or flattered into taking a position which goes contrary to the principles and rules that we have established on the Executive Board for the referral of bills, for the granting of space and staff, for the allowance of travel privileges. There is not a great amount that I would say in words, but