CLERK: Mr. President, if I may, the report supplied by the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee is found on page 1441 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Page 1441 of the Journal. You may proceed, Senator Barrett.

SENATOR BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the body, I am pleased to announce that a public confirmation hearing was held on April 13th of 1981 by the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee and the following five people were approved by that particular committee: From Lincoln, Mrs. Phyllis Acklie, Mrs. Duane Acklie was appointed to the Nebraska Arts Council, homemaker and businessperson. Also to the Nebraska Arts Council from Omaha, Irving Dana, a practicing architect. To the State Electrical Board from Kearney, Mr. Paul Mead, currently a building inspector in that city. From Omaha, Mr. Dennis Schroeder to the State Electrical Board. He is presently an electrical contractor journeyman in that particular city, and finally, from Grand Island, Mr. Dennis Vanosdall to the State Electrical Board, presently a master of electrician. Mr. President, I would move that the appointments be confirmed.

PRESIDENT: Motion is to approve the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee report to confirm the named appointees which were reported on by Senator Barrett. Any discussion? If not, before you is the motion to approve the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee report. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee report.

PRESIDENT: Motion carries and the Miscellaneous Subjects report is approved. The next report on gubernatorial appointments is by the Public Works Committee and the Chair recognizes Chairman Kremer.

SENATOR KREMER: Mr. Chairman and members of the body, there are three gubernatorial appointments that have not yet been confirmed by the Legislature and they are as follows: The Board of Public Roads Classifications and Standards, Mr. Mark Covert. Mr. Chairman, do you want to take them all three?

PRESIDENT: Yes, why don't you just, unless you know of some
