sympathy and directs that this memorandum be presented to the parents of those aforementioned Pages since in the very near future those Pages will no longer be gainfully employed, and therefore once again on the parental dole. Signed on this 1st day of May, 1981 by Speaker Marvel and the Clerk of the Legislature, O'Donnell. Now would Kitty come up here. We want you to be handy here. After this humiliating defeat that you heaped upon us, 18 to 15, I might remind everyone, I don't know how we will get even. But you can depend on it. We will figure a way. With 49 of us thinking, you can imagine what wild schemes we will come up with. My sincerest sympathy on your collective fate. Kitty, we would like to present that to you. We have here a copy for each of the Pages and you will see that those that are not on duty get one so that they can be alerted to the thing that they are going to have to explain to their parents before they are allowed out of the house again, out into society. Now, in case there is anybody that wants to know what these two words, "chautzpah", I would like to elaborate on those a little bit. Shameless audacity, impudence and brass is what chautzpah means. "Ignominy" is the loss of our reputation, shameful dishonor, disgraceful shame, contemplated quality behavior, and that's so. Now, you can imagine with our wild imaginations what we will come up with as the session lingers on. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Koch, your light is on, do you wish to adjourn us?

SENATOR KOCH: May I make one comment, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR KOCH: For the benefit of Senator Fitzgerald, there are those of us here that are going to organize our own team and bring in the first team and we are going to take on the press corps, and we can assure you the results will be different. Now, Mr. Speaker, I move we adjourn until Monday, May 4, 9:30 a.m.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All in favor of that motion say aye. Opposed no. The motion is carried. We are adjourned.
