what we have been trying to work for to keep the machinery going, fine. We are down to the place where we are about ready to send the Select File working papers down to Emory. Now if we have a...simply adjourn, then you are going to do damage to the whole process. So I hope that you will continue to debate until we get through and until the papers come up from Emory and we are about halfway through that now. We are waiting until Emory brings the papers up so that they could be processed.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: May I have a question of Senator Marvel, please.

SENATOR CLARK: You may.

SENATOR HABERMAN: When the papers are brought up by...

SPEAKER MARVEL: E & R, Enrollment and Review.

SENATOR HABERMAN: E & R, that we are waiting for...

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...and we act on those, then will you accept a motion to adjourn?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: And you say that will be approximately, do you have any idea how long?

SPEAKER MARVEL: No. An hour and a half, probably.
