the Farmers Union of Nebraska, Neil Oxton, State President, adults Don Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Prochaska. They are up here in the north balcony, I believe. They are the only ones that are here, so, welcome to your Legislature, folks, from all over Nebraska. Mr. Clerk, I guess we are ready then to...yes, I did, I did. So we are ready then for agenda item #4, gubernatorial appointments, taking them up by committee. Is Senator Fowler here? Senator Koch is here. Why don't we go to... oh, Senator Fowler is here.

SENATOR FOWLER: What page is this on, Pat?

CLERK: 2194, Senator.

SENATOR FOWLER: I would move that these appointments be confirmed.

PRESIDENT: All right, Senator Fowler has moved that the appointments be confirmed for the Retirement Committee, the Chairman's proposal. Any discussion? All those in favor of confirming the gubernatorial appointments as presented by the Chairman of the Retirement Committee vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? We're voting on the gubernatorial appointments, the first one up, Retirement Committee presented by Senator Fowler. Record the vote.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the report.

PRESIDENT: Okay, motion carries, the report is adopted and confirmed. The next one is Education Committee, Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. The Education Committee on May 21 heard the following appointments as appointed by the Governor: To the Safety Center Advisory Council, Fred Zwonecheck of Lincoln, new appointment; Gary Lund of Sidney, new appointment; John Ward of Albion, new appointment; Gary Sims of Holdrege, new appointment; the Honorable Glen Fiebig of Alliance, new appointment; Bob Gunderson of Omaha, new appointment; Charles Fairbanks of Grand Island, new appointment; Duane Schmidt of Lincoln, a reappointment; Rollin Schneider of Lincoln; a new appointment. For the Educational Television Commission, Roger Bailey of Grand Island, a new appointment. For the Postsecondary Education Coordinating Commission, Werdall Wood of North Platte, reappointment; Beth Klosterman of David City, a new appointment.
