SENATOR SIECK: Okay, if they are put on probation....

SENATOR HABERMAN: Is the license revoked?

SENATOR SIECK: Yes, it is.

SENATOR HABERMAN: It is?

SENATOR SIECK: Yes, it is.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Where does it say that on your handout sheet? On your handout sheet it says, first offense mandatory 7 days.

SENATOR SIECK: Yes, it says mandatory.....

SENATOR HABERMAN: Okay, what does your probation....?

SENATOR CLARK: One at a time, please.

SENATOR HABERMAN: You are going to put them in jail then for 7 days for first offense?

SENATOR SIECK: No, the first offense says...of course, then the sheet is wrong because the bill says that they could get 7 days.....

SENATOR HABERMAN: No, no, no, no, no, your sheet I got from your office says, first offense mandatory 7 days, second offense mandatory 30 days.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Haberman, you asked him a question, let him talk, will you, please?

SENATOR HABERMAN: All right, I asked him a question.

SENATOR CLARK: All right, let him talk.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Does the sheet say, first offense mandatory 7 days?

SENATOR SIECK: The sheet may say that but it also says that they could get probation in that particular area.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Then if they get probation, do they take the driver's license?

SENATOR SIECK: Yes, they do because it also says in there that the license is revoked for 30 days, and I am
