SENATOR LAMB PRESIDING

SENATOR LAMB: The morning prayer will be offered by Dr. Palmer.

DR. PALMER: Prayer offered.

SENATOR LAMB: Thank you, Dr. Palmer. Roll call. Senator Nichol, for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. President, while we are registering in I wonder if I might have a point of personal privilege please?

SENATOR LAMB: State your point.

SENATOR NICHOL: Some weeks ago we granted Mrs. Audry Towater the right to paint a picture over here to our left and she has it here this morning, if you would like to look at it. It has been appraised at $2,000, I understand. I think if we talk nice to her she might give it to us, if there is a suitable place for it according to the picture placing committee within the Capitol. I was going to ask if she could have the privilege of painting from the back of the building in the upper level if it was agreeable with the body. I would ask for that permission.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. Chairman, members of the body, I suggest we amend LB 761 for $2,000 and buy the picture and show how much we really appreciate it. That is a serious motion.

SENATOR LAMB: I would at this point like to introduce some students from Senator Koch's district, eight seniors from Ralston High School, Ralston, Nebraska; Mr. Larry Koenig, teacher, in the north balcony I believe. Would you stand and be recognized. If there is no objection we will give permission to Mrs. Towater to paint in the east balcony, today. So ordered. Have you all recorded your presence? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Quorum present, Mr. President.

SENATOR LAMB: Do you have some material to read in, Mr. Clerk?
