SENATOR HABERMAN: A point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

SENATOR LAMB: Proceed.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I would like to thank the Senators for staying until 11:00 tonight to work out and iron this bill and to pass this bill. I would also, as introducer of the bill, extend the privilege to a man who helped me on this bill, the same privilege that I extended to Senator Hoagland and the same privilege I extended to Senator Nichol and I hereby ask that Senator DeCamp's name be placed on the bill with mine and the other two. He did help me considerably with the details of the bill. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR LAMB: Do you have anything to read in, Mr. Clerk? Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker, I'd first like to indicate that I appreciate the role of the Chair this evening in being very fair and even-handed in a difficult time and secondly, I would like to move to adjourn until tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR LAMB: Those who wish to adjourn say aye, those opposed no. We are adjourned.
