

April 13, 1982

I would hope you would want to vote one way or the other.

CLERK: Senator Clark voting yes.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Wiitala and Senator Koch, are you married or are you just holding your hands up for some other reason? Didn't even know you cared about each other.

SENATOR WIITALA: Well, Mr. Chairman, I just...would request that we have a record vote, please.

SENATOR CLARK: We are at ease. All we're doing is finding out how many are going to be here at a quarter of twelve. Senator Kahle, are you going to be here or not? Well when you decide if you'd vote it would help, either way. All right, record the vote. At least you know now how many is going to be here. If anyone is not going to be here please get excused so we'll know that we don't have to call you in.

EASE

SENATOR CLARK: Come to order. The Clerk has them all back except one.

CLERK: Mr. President, your committee on Enrollment and Review respectfully reports that we have carefully examined and engrossed ...

SENATOR CLARK: Go ahead and check in. Let's see if we've got a quorum. I'm sure we have. Will everyone check in, please. Senator VonMinden, Senator Peterson, would everyone check in, please. Senator Hoagland, do you want to check in. Senator Haberman, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR HABERMAN: A ruling from the Chair.

SENATOR CLARK: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Just so that we understand everything, at midnight everything quits?

SENATOR CLARK: Pardon?

SENATOR HABERMAN: At midnight everything stops?

SENATOR CLARK: That is right.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you.

SENATOR CLARK: All right, record the presence. Record the presence, Pat.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.
